Someone To Kill:

Morality, Mortality Frances Myrna Kamm, F. M. Kamm, 2001 In this second volume Kamm continues to explore questions of life and death as illustrations of general issues in moral theory Resuming her development of non consequentialist ethical theory and its application to practical ethical problems she explores the distinction between killing and letting die between harming and not aiding and between intending and foreseeing harm This impressive treatment of substantive ethics will prove indispensable for all those interested in moral theory California.
