Paul Tillich and His System of Paradoxical Correlation Charles Amarkwei, 2020-05-05 This book shows the paradoxical mode by which Christians keep their faith in the Christian message as they relate with science It reveals how Paul Tillich's method of correlation helps us to understand how Christians interact with science without necessarily conflicting separating and dialoguing and synthesizing with each other It rules out natural theology but provides a non eclectic theology of nature that frees Christians to be involved in science meaningfully and without undermining their faith

Systematic Theology,

Volume 1 Paul Tillich, 1973-09-15 This is the first part of Paul Tillich's three volume Systematic Theology one of the most profound statements of the Christian message ever composed and the summation and definitive presentation of the theology of the most influential and creative American theologian of the twentieth century In this path breaking volume Tillich presents the basic method and statement of his system his famous correlation of man's deepest questions with theological answers Here the focus is on the concepts of being and reason Tillich shows how the quest for revelation is integral to reason itself In the same way a description of the inner tensions of being leads to the recognition that the quest for God is implied in finite being Here also Tillich defines his thought in relation to philosophy and the Bible and sets forth his famous doctrine of God as the Ground of Being Thus God is understood not as a being existing beside other beings but as being itself or the power of being in everything God cannot be made into an object religious knowledge is therefore necessarily symbolic

Stone, 2002 The broad impact of Paul Tillich on present day philosophical theological thoughtforms especially of Protestant Christianity continues unabated into the new century Dialogues of Paul Tillich presents Tillich's conversations with past religious thinkers basic to Tillich's thought but also carries the dialogue beyond Tillich's own formulations into conversations with current issues regarding feminism liberation theology fundamentalism world religions and Christian realism The essays in Dialogues of Paul Tillich reflect and contribute to that conversation

Paul Tillich's Dialectical Humanism Leonard F. Wheat, 1970
The author argues that Tillich is an uncompromising atheist who quite deliberately concealed the real substance of his message in an analogical code that enabled him like Saint Paul to be all things to all men This calculated ambiguity protected his standing in the Church allowing him to undermine from within According to the author Tillich held that Protestantism should change fundamentally in response to the gap between tradition and what modern man can believe Faced with a disquieting spiritual emptiness after his own loss of faith Tillich sought and found a new truth with which to fill the void By guarding this truth from all but a few able to accept it he hoped to lead individual Christians to whatever levels of religious sophistication they were capable of reaching
