Aukerman,1971      Teaching Beginning Reading and Writing with the Picture Word Inductive Model Emily Calhoun,1999 In this practical guide to teaching beginning language learners of all ages Calhoun encourages us to begin where the learners begin with their developed listening and speaking vocabularies and other accumulated knowledge about the world Engage students in shaking words out of a picture words from their speaking vocabularies to begin the process of building their reading and writing skills Use the picture word inductive model PWIM to teach several skills simultaneously beginning with the mechanics of forming letters to hearing and identifying the phonetic components of language to classifying words and sentences through forming paragraphs and stories based on observation Built into the PWIM is the structure required to assess the needs and understandings of your students immediately adjust the lesson in response and to use explicit instruction and inductive activities Individual small group and large group activities are inherent to the model and flow naturally as the teacher arranges instruction according to the 10 steps of the PWIM Students and teachers move through the model and work on developing skills and abilities in reading writing listening and comprehension as tools for thinking learning and sharing ideas      Teaching Beginning Readers Jerry L. Johns,Susan Davis Lenski,Laurie Elish-Piper,2002      A Guide to Teaching Beginning Reading for Teachers and Parents Karol Christena,1999-10-01      How to Teach Beginning Reading Samuel Chester Parker,2015-06-16 Excerpt from How to Teach Beginning Reading Every step that they take along this road under the teacher s guidance is playful and delightful At the same time each step is a part of a most systematic and progressive scheme of learning all parts of which have been definitely planned in advance Yet so thoroughly are the various teaching processes adapted to the children s instinctive interests and activities that delight in learning and systematic progress go hand in hand Much incidental reading connected with studies of home and farm Since much of the reading in Miss Hardy s room was intimately connected with other activities of the children it is desirable to get an idea of the general course of study in the first grade in order to understand the principles of teaching upon which the reading was based The work of the first two or three months in this first grade was very much like that of an advanced kindergarten group plus specific training in reading and number Like a progressive kindergarten the first grade introduced children to a study of home and community life through play this being the first step in a progressive study of social life which as it continues through the grades develops into the history geography and civics of the later years The first social unit studied was the home The children talked about the rooms which they had in their own homes and the purposes that each served using such sentences as We cook in the kitchen We eat in the diningroom We sleep in the bedroom etc Playrooms were constructed out of blocks or paper or cardboard Each child chose a room planned the necessary furniture constructed it described his plans and his work etc The little sentences quoted were used incidentally for reading material The study of the home was followed by a study of farm life The farmyard its buildings occupants etc were constructed in a sand pan after making a large plan with labels for the house barn road etc The story of the farmer bringing his crops to town or to the railroad for shipment was developed Some of the products were followed into the grocery store which was studied for a few days and linked up with the activities of the home About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works See Me Read Evelyn Palmer Mooney, Jenny Edwards, PhD, 2014-04-28 In See Me Read A Phonetic Approach for Teaching Beginning Readers of All Ages Evelyn Palmer Mooney provides a time tested method for teaching students of all ages to read Pre K through adult Based on years of research and practice the book contains a compilation of strategies for teaching reading along with word lists short stories and jingles and questions to enable beginning readers to practice the skills they are learning Since the materials only contain the words that students are prepared to read as they advance through the levels they can feel successful from the beginning and practice effective decoding skills Mooney moves from teaching consonants to introducing vowels and helping students read beginning words to providing strategies for introducing beginning and ending consonant blends She then moves to teaching syllabication as a method for teaching spelling In addition she provides numerous word lists that will help both children and adults to spell words correctly and make sense of the English language All learners will benefit from reading this book Whether you are a teacher who has taught students to read for years a tutor who is teaching beginning readers or older students a parent who is teaching your child to read an adult who would like to become an even better reader and speller or an adult or child who is learning English as a second language this book is for you You will discover little known facts about the English language that will enable you to be even more effective Teaching Beginning Readers Jerry L.
