India's Women ,1886 Gandhi The Holy Man Rene Fulop-Miller, Gandhi The Holy Man The people look on Gandhi as a saint he is venerated in India as no other man has ever been Although his birth and caste are not such as to seem likely to win prestige since he is neither Brahman nor a Kshatriya belongs o the Banya caste nevertheless the most high caste

Brahmans bow reverently before him The whole nation follows him implicitly says Rabindranath Tagore and for one reason only that they believe him to be a saint To see a whole nation of different races of differing temperaments and ideals joining and following a saint is a modern miracle and only possible in India The worst and most deep rooted passions re soothed by the words Mahatama Gandhi forbids it I don t agree with Gandhi in many things but I give him y utmost reverence and admiration e is not only the greatest man in India e is the greatest man on earth today It s not only the masses who feel Gandhi s spell Indian intellectuals also peak of Gandhi as there Mahatma hat this word Mahatma great soul means to the Hindu is also explained to us by Rabindranath Tagore The word Mahatma means he liberated ego which rediscovers itself in all other souls that life no longer confined in individual human beings he comprehensive soul of the Atman f the spirit In this way the soul comes Mahatma by comprehending all souls all spirit in itself Anyone who would understand the greatness of Gandhi s influence must make himself familiar with the peculiar conditions prevailing in India The population of the country consists of an immense number of stocks races and groups widely separated ethnologically who speak eleven different languages and belong to the most varied religions and sects Seventy million are adherents of Islam alone and have for centuries lived with the Hindus in continual dissension and perpetual hostility The English Governor Mr Lloyd one of Gandhi s fiercest enemies declared after his arrest that he must be buried alive in prison and no one allowed access to him or his cell would soon become a Mecca for the whole world How well founded this fear was is clearly shown by the description in an Indian paper In the evenings this journal states the public assembled in large numbers at the Sabarmati Prison to do homage to their beloved leader the masses stood before the prison as before a temple When the bell rang to announce the hour of admission the sound was received with thrills of joy Then the crowd of pilgrims 8 Gandhi The Holy man approached their revered Mahatma some threw themselves at his feet others touched him with awe others again showed their respect only by profound salaams Mothers laid their infants in his arms and old women touched the ground before him to show their devotion from the book Normal Instructor ,1915 The Indian Quarterly Register ,1924
