Spirit And Matter:

All Spirit Matters Pirate of Paradise, 2024-07-08 Each of us is called to be a special kind of mystic when we are formed in the womb in the Divine Image Mystics seek to conform to the Divine Image from womb to tomb for as the Indian Sufi Kabir sang What hope of cutting loose after one's death The noose stifling heaven in every breath As now so shall we seek liberation In Life or be interred in illusion This compilation of prose and mystical poetry draws upon the life and teachings of Jesus of Nazareth a mystic who is revered as a rabbi in Judaism messiah in Christianity prophet in Islam bodhisattva in Buddhism and a wise and compassionate teacher and healer in secular settings References from several faith traditions are included throughout to emphasize the shared wisdom and spiritual heritage of humanity Through these reflections we explore the relationship and reciprocity of life forms on the Tree of Life We aim to foster harmony and healing among and across various form branches We seek to find common ground on universal themes as well as unique expressions within our own secular and faith traditions Hopefully these reflections will prompt us to conduct our own experiments on mystical universals in ways that are congruent and consonant with our primary language of Spirit Matters

Spirit Matters J. Jeffrey Franklin, 2018-03-15 Spirit Matters explores the heterodox and unorthodox religions and spiritualities that arose in Victorian Britain as a result of the faltering of Christian faith in the face of modernity the rise of the truth telling authority of science and the first full exposure of the West to non Christian religions J Jeffrey Franklin investigates the diversity of ways that spiritual seekers struggled to maintain faith or to create new faiths by reconciling elements of the Judeo Christian heritage with Spiritualism Buddhism occultism and scientific naturalism Spirit Matters covers a range of scenarios from the Victorian hearth and the state Church altar to the frontiers of empire in Buddhist countries and Egyptian crypts Franklin reveals how this diversity of elements provided the materials for the formation of new hybrid religions and the emergence in the 20th century of New Age spiritualities Franklin investigates a broad spectrum of experiences through a series of representative case studies that together trace the development of unorthodox religious and spiritual discourses The ideas and events discussed by Franklin through these case studies were considered outside the domain of orthodox religion yet still religious or spiritual rather than atheistic or materialistic Among the works obscure and canonical he analyzes are Edward Bulwer Lytton's Zanoni and A Strange Story Forest Life in Ceylon by William Knighton Anthony Trollope's The Vicar of Bullhampton Anna Leonowens's The English Governess at the Siamese Court Literature and Dogma by Matthew Arnold and Bram Stoker's Dracula

The world of matter and the spirit of man Theodore Parker, 1907 The New Mormon Challenge Francis Beckwith, Carl Mosser, Paul Owen, 2002 Written by an international team of respected Christian scholars this freshly researched rebuttal of Mormon doctrine will aid those sharing the gospel with Mormons and those investigating Mormonism on their own

Best Kept Secrets of the Gospel of Jesus Christ Lawrence D. Gardner, 2006-02-28 I had a religion professor at Brigham Young University who often asked What is the best kept secret of The Mormon Church After declaring all answers amiss he would make this statement The best kept secret of The Mormon Church is the Gospel of Jesus Christ Over the years of teaching gospel doctrine I have found his statement to be all too true Despite their best study efforts and the abundance of scriptural resources many members do not understand some fundamental and extremely important doctrines I invite you to feast with me upon the meat of more exalted concepts

"Total in God - total in oneself" - The Teilhardian vision of unification of the world and God and its roots in European philosophical-theological tradition Thomas Klibengajtis,2012-04-02 Scientific Essay from the year 2006 in the subject Philosophy General Essays Eras course International Teilhard Asia Conference 2006 Manila Philippines August 200 language English abstract The aim of the present article is to situate the Teilhardian vision of unification of all in Christ Eph 1 10 together with the resulting panentheistic evolutionary and mystical premises within the European philosophical theological tradition which I would like to call the unifying tradition In the first part of the article I shall try to prove that the Teilhardian conception of the evolutionary development of all beings up to the point of Omega Christ generally understood as a departure from multitude analysis towards unity synthesis is a simple consequence of the philosophical theological thought current that began with Parmenides manifested itself in the thought of Platon in Middle Platonism in the conceptions of Plotinus Nicholas of Cusa Spinoza Leibniz and in German idealism The second part of the article presents the analogy between Teilhard de Chardin's Christocentric and eschatological vision of evolution and the Christian conceptions of the emergence and return of all beings from and to God These conceptions were present in varying scope and degree in the thought of the Greek Church Fathers Clement of Alexandria Origen Cappadocian Fathers and later Christian authors Pseudo Dionysius Areopagite Maximus Confessor Eriugena The part's final section will discuss whether Teilhard's view on the animation or spiritualization of matter which implies a lack of difference between spirit and body represents a novelty in Christian thought or whether this view can be inscribed into the current of an orthodox unifying theory The third part of the article shall consider the degree to which European conceptions of multitude in unity panentheistic visions of Christian neo Platonism and the conception of gradual spiritualization of everything presented among others by Teilhard de Chardin can be implemented in the intercultural and interreligious dialogue between Christianity and Asian peoples and religions for whom the vision of animation and spiritualization of everything is surely a close one In the article's fourth and last part I shall try to portray the practical implications arising from the unifying tradition inscribed with Teilhard's thought for the moral and spiritual development of us all
