Woven Threads: Jane Alberdeston, Kuwabong Dannabang, Dorsía Smith Silva, 2026-02-12 This illuminating collection moves beyond the perspectives of mothering and motherhood as an individual practice Here attention is given to how caretaking is extended in a myriad ways especially in familial systems and community networks These chapters reveal multidisciplinary perspectives that include sociology literary studies health cultural studies media studies history law women s and gender studies and personal narratives In each conversation with the reader the collection reflects on how othermothering strengthens core bonds within the community The core tenet of feminist theory and practice the personal is political becomes through the essays an invitation to reconceive the structures of parenting from not only a critical historical and analytical perspective but also from the stories that support and bring those analyses to the foreground Here othermothering is rescue and the collection by sharing these diverse narratives becomes a valuable tool an apparatus for building community
