The Turning Point:

The Turning Point Preston Gibson, 1910 The Turning Point Fritjof Capra, 1983 We are trying to apply the concepts of an outdated world view the mechanistic world view of Cartesian Newtonian science to a reality that can no longer be understood in terms of these concepts To describe this world appropriately we need an ecological perspective that the Cartesian world view does not offer Preface 15 16 The Turning Point Francis Ray, 2001-04-15 Finding the courage to escape her abusive marriage Lilly Crawford leaves her husband and her hometown When her car breaks down in Louisiana she meets neurosurgeon Adam Wakefield who was blinded by car thieves Unsure he will ever recover his sight or his life Adam sinks into depression But when Lilly is hired as his caregiver and the two spend long hours together an unexpected bond develops Vivekananda as the Turning Point A Compilation, This is a commemorative volume published by Advaita Ashrama a publication house of Ramakrishna Math Belur Math being a part of Swami Vivekananda s 150th birth anniversary publications It is a collection of revealing articles on this great personality by writers from all walks of life and they present Vivekananda as that Turning Point in modern history which will usher a new era of hope peace and living spirituality the world over Stalingrad And The Turning Point On The Soviet-German Front, 1941-1943 Captain Dennis W. Dingle, 2014-08-15 This study is an historical analysis of the Soviet German conflict during World War II and focuses on the years 1941 1943 It examines the relative economic and military power of the two nations to determine if there was a shift in advantage or turning point during that period To quantify those elements of power it uses criteria taken from a current strategic analysis model This model assesses elements of national power to aid in strategic problem solving and international policy formulation Specific criteria are applied to four specific military events between 1941 and 1943 The resulting data is then graphed to compare relative military and economic power The graphs serve as the basis for conclusions Among the conclusions which may be drawn from this study are the Battle of Stalingrad was not the economic turning point of the war when considering the criteria of industrial labor and armaments production Stalingrad was the military turning point considering military forces and equipment on the Soviet German front This study concludes that this method of assessing relative national power of nations can be applied in an historical context to evaluate past wars It may assist historians to better understand the factors that led to various turning points throughout history The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark Gregg S. Morrison, 2014-09-24 Based on linguistic and thematic links in the narrative The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark argues that the twin pericopae of Peter s confession 8 27 38 and the Transfiguration 9 2 13 together function as the turning point of the Gospel and serve in a Janus like manner enabling the reader to see the author s main focus the identity of Jesus and the significance of that reality for his disciples Peter s confession of Jesus as Messiah faces backward toward the Prologue 1 1 13 and functions as a mid course conclusion The declaration by God on the mountain faces forward and foreshadows the end course conclusion 14 61 62 15 39 Son of God Jesus in response teaches that the Son of Man must suffer and die before being raised from the dead 8 31 Christologically the images of Messiah Son of Man and Son of God converge and present Jesus the crucified as king ushering in the kingdom of God in power 9 1 acting as the key swivel between the twin pericopae When one is confronted with this Jesus though there remains something elusive about him and the kingdom of God in the narrative the only wise decision after calculating the costs 8 34 38 is to follow
