Media Power in Central America Rick Rockwell, Noreene Janus, 2010-10-01 Media Power in Central America explores the political and cultural interplay between the media and those in power in Costa Rica El Salvador Guatemala Honduras Panama and Nicaragua Highlighting the subtle strangulation of opposition media voices in the region the authors show how the years since the guerrilla wars have not yielded the free media systems that some had expected Rick Rockwell and Noreene Janus examine the region country by country and deal with the specific conditions of government sponsored media repression economic censorship corruption and consumer trends that shape the political landscape Challenging the notion of the media as a democratizing force Media Power in Central America shows how governments use the media to block democratic reforms and outlines the difficulties of playing watchdog to rulers who use the media as a tool of power

Media Power David L. Altheide, 1985 Altheide deals with a very simple paradox in the past people communicated in order to get something done now they must first do something in order to communicate The role of the mass media in establishing shaping and maintaining basic communication formats is the main focus of his book He looks at how mass mediated versions of events differ from those experienced first hand and at what would happen if everyone had unlimited access to television broadcasting facilities Using specific examples and case studies of current events Altheide examines the impact and implications of the mass media on a range of phenomena from international relations down to self concept This book is an important complement to that whol

Race, Culture and Media Anamik Saha,2025-05-14 Race Culture and Media is a critical impassioned and accessible exploration of this complex relationship This new edition moves past conventional discourse on diversity challenging you to confront the real issues of power and participation Anamik Saha s approachable writing starts from the ground up leading you through nuanced topics such as how capitalism and legacies of colonialism shape media content today and the value and limitations of key concepts like stereotype representation and racialisation You will be empowered to Understand the multifaceted theories and experiences of race and its intersections with gender sexuality and class Analyse key topics from how algorithms AI produce racism in digital media to the politics of superdiversity in popular culture to ongoing anti migrant and anti Muslim racism in news media Engage with brand new case studies which cover the latest developments on how race is made in media including YouTube and social media This book will challenge your preconceptions and ignite your critical thinking making it essential reading for students and researchers across media communication and cultural studies

Critical Perspectives on Media, Power and Change Ilija Tomanić Trivundža,Hannu Nieminen,Nico Carpentier,Josef Trappel,2018-10-19 This book aims to feed into the critical debates about media power and change through the respectful inclusion of a wide variety of critical approaches and traditions This diversity is simultaneously structured and balanced by a deeply shared set of concerns that are mobilised to defend core societal values including social justice equality fairness care for the other and humanity Critical Perspectives on Media Power and Change raises questions about how the omnipresent media can contribute to the materialisation of these core values and how it sometimes works against them Rethinking social change mediatisation and regulations are thus significant issues explicitly addressed in this book In addition the authors show how the role of the critical media and communication scholar merits and requires self reflection critical voices matter but they also face structural limitations This book was originally published as two special issues of Javnost The Public
