Some Examples of Astral Life C. W. Leadbeater, 2005-12 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world s literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work The Other Side of Death, Scientifically Examined and Carefully Described Charles Webster Leadbeater, 1928 The Theosophical Review ,1904 The Other Side of Death Charles Webster Leadbeater, 1903 The American Catalogue ,1905 American national trade bibliography The Literary News Frederick Leypoldt, 1904 Literary News ,1903 Theosophical Talks at Adyar Charles Webster Leadbeater, 1911 Not Walking On Water James S. Reiley, 2011-11-15 Waking up to the idea that there may be more to the universe than he learned in Sunday School Paul Bradley sets off to make sense of all manner of newly discovered spiritual notions Fortunately he is guided by another computer software guy named Bob who is also a hippie Zen Buddhist Paul s trip takes a slew of turns through organic farming strange encounters with other beings far out forms of spiritual discipline and the dissolution of a broken marriage At every hard spot or weirdness Bob is there to provide enlightened guidance usually with a peculiar twist of some sort Written in the style of Dave Barry with humor punctuating most situations the novel is aimed at people trying to get a handle around the ideas of where we come from where we re going and why JAMES REILEY has degrees in Mathematics Computer Science and Medicine and has spent the last thirty odd years studying spirituality from a variety of different perspectives Dr Reiley is currently a part time writer and practicing physician in Connecticut Gems of Thought from Leading Intellectual Lights ... ,1906 The Practice of Magical Evocation Franz Bardon, 2014-07-28 Throughout the ages and primarily during the past few centuries many lengthy dissertations have been published on the art of higher magic Unfortunately they are for the most part such bewildering and incomplete remnants that very little of it can be taken as a point of reference for practical studies and this only in small fragments The original initiative for magic was known only to a very few lodges and was reserved for a particularly chosen few while for the seekers of truth who searched diligently for any information this subject matter remained dark and mysterious Various religions during the Middle Ages were severely hostile towards any magical knowledge In our history the most prominent examples are the well known Inquisitions Later in modern times magic was regarded as mere superstition and any person who showed some inclination toward this knowledge let alone one seriously concerned himself with the study of magic was regarded as a fool and was ridiculed In the past mystical and other sects maligned magic to such a degree that the word magic has to this very day an extremely dubious reputation And any person who has had an appreciation or understanding for magical knowledge has been pilloried as a black magician In reality true magic was initially taught in the ancient schools of the prophets and then only in the highest circles However only a few select insiders had access to these institutions In those days only a few books occasionally disclosed scant bits of information about true magic These books were deliberately written in such a way that they would disclose little or nothing even to the most astute reader and hence they would not give the seeker of truth a complete understanding of the subject of magic In accordance with the ancient Egyptian Mysteries the magic of the second Tarot card is represented by the High Priestess Franz Bardon the author of The Practice of Magical Evocation gladly continues to guide the serious diligent reader and student of magic along the proper path as long as this person is devoid of any fanatical religious beliefs and erroneous ideology Furthermore this person has to be prepared to penetrate further into the mysteries of the knowledge of magic or the Hermetic sciences As in Franz Bardon s first book Initiation into Hermetics Bardon endeavors to keep the language of this second volume in a style that is understandable to everyone The subject matter of the magic of evocation is among the least known and least investigated branches of the art and therefore Bardon makes certain that every person who reads this book will become completely familiar with this subject matter not only in theory but above all with the practice if he so chooses It is important however that the reader know that he will not achieve any results with the practice of magical evocation unless he has successfully completed Step VIII at the very least of Franz Bardon s first book Initiation into Hermetics which is a description of the first tarot card the Magician Should Franz Bardon be successful in assisting the reader who has successfully completed the entire practical part of his first book to achieve the same good results with this one then Bardon has achieved his objective Those readers who initially study the secret sciences only theoretically will find in this work a satisfactory broadening of their knowledge Light, 1882 The Busy Life Beyond Death, from the Voice of the Dead John Lobb, 1909 Ancient Mystic Rites C.
