Afghanistan Literature is World's greatest and richest without Afghan Literature no European German French Spanish or English Literature would exist today The Vedas Zoroastrian and Buddhist among the oldest known Literature of Afghanistan originating from the Great capital of Bactria present day Balkh and Aria present day Herat Sanskrit is the reference to the original history of Afghanistan The Saxon Europeans influence during the Great Games of the mid nineteenth century affected the Afghan language religion and Territories size which previously had extended from India to North Africa at 2.6 million square kilometers The Great Games continued at any cost evolving into present day conflicts of 2013 The Durand Line: South Asia's New Trouble Spot ,2005

The Durand Line the western border between Pakistan and Afghanistan was delineated in 1893 as the boundary between then British India and Afghanistan The international community has recognized the Durand line as the Pakistan Afghan border since the creation of Pakistan in 1947 but successive Afghan rulers have repudiated its legitimacy This dispute has caused turbulence in relations between these two countries and worsened problems with regard to Pashtun nationalism The Durand Line has remained porous due to the nature of tribal cultures and the socio economic compulsions of the people living along it The Durand Line was exploited to launch the Afghan Jihad against the Soviets in the 1980s The Global War on Terror GWOT in

Afghanistan has once again brought misperceptions regarding alignment and the porous nature of the Durand Line into the lime light This thesis demonstrates that existing combat operations against Al Qaeda and the Taliban and the exploitation of the Durand Line by the U S led coalition forces has had a destabilizing effect on Pakistan because of the autonomous nature of tribal areas and Pakistan s need to extend its authority in tribal areas while supporting the GWOT This thesis recommends that a clear understanding of the Durand Line as an international border by all concerned states will enhance the coordination of operations on all tiers and thereby prevent this border from becoming South Asia s next trouble spot

A Concise History of Afghanistan-Central Asia and India in 25 Volumes HAMID ALIKUZAI,2015-01-19 Thirteen years after the U S invasion of Afghanistan Thirteen years after the U S invasion of Afghanistan the gains that the international coalition has made with its local partners are real but reversible Afghanistan is no longer a global hub of terrorist activity but Taliban resurgence would threaten to make it one again Reconstruction assistance has produced demonstrable progress in health education and economic well being but corruption and governance problems have undermined popular support for the government in Kabul and constrained the overall level of progress Internationally a coalition still backs the International Security Assistance Force ISAF military mission However NATO s will is waning China Russia and India are largely free riders and Punjab and Iran publicly say the right things while destabilizing Afghanistan by privately meddling to their own ends Political and economic realities in the United States make the current level of American engagement in Afghanistan unsustainable But as the commitment of coalition partners fades what Washington decides will shape the future of South Asia Looking ahead there are three different scenarios for American engagement in Afghanistan It remains to be seen exactly which route Washington will take But it is clear that U S interests require a long term commitment not only in Afghanistan but across the region Lest it be forgotten the consequences of ignoring the region in the 1990s were visited upon the United States on 9 11 So the most vital goals present day are defeating the remnants of al Qaeda in Punjab preventing the reemergence of terrorist sanctuaries in Afghanistan ensuring the security of Punjab s nuclear weapons and discouraging Punjab s use of extremism and terror as a policy instrument There are three ways forward Each entails a different degree of involvement and carries varying risks and rewards The first option is the riskiest Future 1 Immediate Departure and the Reallocation of Resources because discontent among the U S public over the war is already at an all time high
