Their New Found Family:

They Sarfraz Manzoor, 2021-08-19 A RADIO 4 BOOK OF THE WEEK and a powerful and deeply personal exploration of a divided country and a hopeful vision for change This is not another book about the relationship between Muslims and non Muslims It is THE book Absolutely not to be missed Matthew d Ancona Sarfraz Manzoor grew up in a working class Pakistani Muslim family in Luton where he was raised to believe that they were different they had an alien culture and they would never accept him They were white people In today s deeply divided Britain we are often told they are different they have a different culture and values and they will never accept this country This time they are Muslims Weaving together history reportage and memoir Sarfraz Manzoor journeys around Britain in search of the roots of this division from the fear that Islam promotes violence to the suspicion that Muslims wish to live segregated lives to the belief that Islam is fundamentally misogynistic THEY is also Manzoor s search for a more positive future We hear stories from Islamic history of a faith more tolerant and progressive than commonly assumed and stories of hope from across the country which show how we might bridge the chasm of mutual mistrust THEY is at once fiercely urgent resolutely hopeful and profoundly personal It is the story of modern Muslim Britain as it has never been told

Ritual, Family and Therapy in Anglophone Literatures Lars Heiler, 2025-03-10 This book investigates the triadic constellations between ritual family and therapy in literature in English Many rituals so called rites of passage in particular are strongly associated with the changing status of individuals as members of a family unit Traditional healing rituals were often designed to have a therapeutic effect sometimes mentally but also physically whereas modern psychotherapies often include ritual elements in order to enhance the efficacy of their treatment Families on the other hand can be the site of therapeutic activity by providing protection stability and emotional comfort yet difficult family constellations may also be the origin of emotional distress and the reason why a person needs counselling and therapeutic support in the first place Modern therapies such as family systems therapy have expanded their range of interest and influence in order to look at the whole family unit not just the symptomatic individual as client This study discusses nine literary texts six novels one literary memoir and two plays in which the three dimensions intersect and mutually influence each other
