Then a Soldier Meredith Eugene Hunt, 2017-03-19 UNIVERSAL MAN 3 In this final installment of Universal Man as light and darkness battle around him a former high school English teacher endures personal tragedy and loss isolation prison and torture He finds friends in unusual places Through all this he emerges as a leader in a nation swelling toward civil war Contains 21 B And one man in his time plays many parts His acts being seven ages At first the infant Mewling and puking in the nurse's arms And then the whining school boy with his satchel And shining morning face creeping like snail Unwillingly to school And then the lover Sighing like furnace with a woeful ballad Made to his mistress's eyebrow Then a soldier Full of strange oaths and bearded like the pard Jealous in honour sudden and quick in quarrel Seeking the bubble reputation Even in the cannon's mouth And then the justice In fair round belly with good capon lined With eyes severe and beard of formal cut Full of wise saws and modern instances And so he plays his part The sixth age shifts Into the lean and slipper'd pantaloons With spectacles on nose and pouch on side His youthful hose well saved a world too wide For his shrunken shank and his big manly voice Turning again toward childish treble pipes And whistles in his sound Last scene of all That ends this strange eventful history Is second childishness and mere oblivion Sans teeth sans eyes sans taste sans everything from As You Like It
