Theology Is For Proclamation:

Theology is for Proclamation Gerhard O. Forde, 1990-01-01 This book drags systematic theology out of the study sticks it into the pulpit onto the altar and under the waters of baptism so that it proclaims the gospel It sets limits within which discussions of ministry and ecumenism must occur if we are to remain proclaimers of the gospel Forde's work ought to be the centerpiece for years to come simply because in his inimitably impatient way he has it right James M Kittelson Professor of History University of Ohio Christian Preaching Michael Pasquarello III, 2011-06-28 Michael Pasquarello has written a must read book articulating a Trinitarian vision for preaching His compelling argument is richly informed by traditional biblical hermeneutics creedal history understood as storied attestation of the witness of Scripture and liturgical theology and practice considered as embodied performance of the Bible's divine narrative Here is a clear summons to the church to abandon all lesser homiletic aims and to prayerfully and faithfully proclaim the holy gospel to the glory of God Charles L Bartow Princeton Theological Seminary Like all of Michael Pasquarello's work his newest book not only upholds the classical Christian tradition but also breathes new vitality into it In an era in which preaching is reduced to persuasive communication Pasquarello reminds us that the Christian message has a content that originates in and gives expression to the Father Son and Holy Spirit Richard Lischer Duke Divinity School One of the refreshing things about this fine book by Michael Pasquarello is that when he thinks about the ministry of preaching he is not afraid to measure the breadth historically or plumb the depths theologically Pasquarello has written this book like a good sermon faithfully thoughtfully prayerfully and with a profound word to speak We are in his debt Thomas G Long Candler School of Theology Boldly challenging homiletical accommodation to American culture Pasquarello seeks to change the subject of preaching from method and marketing to the Triune God who is the source and goal of our speech A welcome theological vision of preaching Charles L Campbell Columbia Theological Seminary Christian Preaching brings together two disciplines that have sadly grown apart such that they almost developed irreconcilable differences preaching and theology Pasquarello offers a brilliant critique of theology as technique and draws on the theology and sermons of Irenaeus Augustine Luther Wesley and others convincingly demonstrating that effective pragmatic preaching requires substantive theological engagement and vice versa This book accomplishes its purpose so well that it should be used not only in preaching courses but also in basic theology courses No preacher should be let loose on a congregation without passing through Pasquarello's Christian Preaching D Stephen Long Marquette University Mike Pasquarello III PhD University of North Carolina Chapel Hill is Granger E and Anna A Fisher Professor of Preaching at Asbury Theological Seminary He is the author of Sacred Rhetoric Preaching as a Theological and Pastoral Practice of the Church Proclamation and Theology William H. Willimon, 2005 William Willimon recognized as a master interpreter of theology and the practice of preaching draws on classical theology and practical experience to provide a cogent powerful explanation of what it means to live the preaching life Christian Theology Of Proclamation. Translated, A Hugo

Rahner,1968 The Divine Voice Stephen H. Webb,2012-01-20 Makes the bold claim that the rhetorical skills of public speaking are essential to all Christian witness

Religious Education in the African American Tradition Kenneth H. Hill,2012-11 Schweitzer's goal in this book is to explore what postmodernity actually means for theology and how theology and the church may respond to its challenges He focuses on the life cycle as it is changing with the advent of postmodernity looking sequentially at segments of the life cycle using different lenses modernity postmodernity and responses from church and theology Schweitzer concludes with a theology of the life cycle

Systematics Critical and Constructive 1 Ronald R. Ray,2018-08-15 This labor of love distills Dr Ron Ray's lifetime reflections on the truth and meaning of the gospel of Jesus Christ Gathered in one volume is an abundant harvest from the best of twentieth century systematic theology Beginning students will find here an informative and clear introductory text Working pastors will receive a refresher course to steady and strengthen a ministry of integrity and joy Preachers will benefit from the author's recommendation of the topical biblical sermon an approach that leads to contemporary topics for textually based scriptural preaching while reinvigorating topical preaching with scriptural sturdiness With both conviction and transparency Ray welcomes his readers into a thoughtful conversation about why and how the Christian message still matters today In the process we also see firsthand how and why systematic theology can still matter today for those entrusted with proclaiming the good news of Jesus Christ James F Kay Dean and Vice President of Academic Affairs Professor Princeton Theological Seminary This critical and constructive perspective interacts with such fields as biblical studies Old and New Testament theology hermeneutics and other philosophy Ray's synthesis arises out of a unique theological and pastoral pilgrimage as a minister in the United States and as a missionary theologian and Christian ethicist in Nigeria and Kenya As one might expect from a scholar who did the first PhD dissertation on Jacques Ellul Ray writes with a forthright probing honest style He criticizes authors at highly specific points but often demonstrates indebtedness to the same scholars He is deeply informed by the New Testament and secondarily by the Old Testament yet insists that interpretive dishonesty is no Christian virtue Leicester R Longden Assoc Professor of Evangelism and Discipleship Emeritus University of Dubuque Theological Seminary

Dogmatics in Outline Karl Barth,1959-09-02 Barth stands before us as the greatest theologian of the twentieth century yet the massive corpus of work which he left behind the multi volume Church Dogmatics

can seem daunting and formidable to readers today Fortunately his Dogmatics in Outline first published in English in 1949 contains in brilliantly concentrated form even in shorthand the essential tenets of his thinking Built around the assertions made in the Apostles Creed the book consists of a series of reflections on the foundation stones of Christian doctrine Because Dogmatics in Outline derives from very particular circumstances namely the lectures Barth gave in war shattered Germany in 1946 it has an urgency and a compassion which lend the text a powerful simplicity Despite its brevity the book makes a tremendous impact which in this new edition will now be felt by a fresh generation of readers

Theology and the Philosophy of Science Wolfhart Pannenberg, 1976 This major work by one of the world's best known theologians is a unique contribution in bringing theology into solid dialogue with the scientific disciplines Professor Pannenberg develops the position that the scientific method is as applicable to theology as it is to other spheres of intellectual reflection He discusses the nature of science and scientific explanation and defines the sense in which theology is a science Professor Pannenberg then speaks of Christian theology as a branch of the theology of religion and calls upon Christian thinkers to search for truth in less traditional bound and presumptuous ways than they have in the past This book demonstrates that Pannenberg believes in a unitary way of knowledge Here he defines both the theologians and the secular thinkers who believe that theological discourse is in some special way privileged exempt from the universally accepted Western methods or reasoning His argument is provocative to theologians of a different bent and challenges secular thinkers to take as rational propositions Christian theology's truth claims With this book Professor Pannenberg places himself centrally and unequivocally in the secular academic community and rescues theology from its privileged marginality in modern intellectual discourse Publisher
