Something Deep Within Me Roars:

Something Deep Within Me Roars Troy A. Atterberry, 2005-07-01 Something Deep Within Me Roars is not just a collection of my poetry. It's some of my deepest, innermost, personal and private thoughts, feelings, and emotions. Writing it was an emotional journey for me, sometimes returning my emotions to places I thought I had long left behind. I often contemplated some of the contents of this book. Whether or not I should allow some of the poems I choose to be in it, actually be in it. After countless mental matches of wrestling with these thoughts, I came to the conclusion that my thoughts and feelings are what they are. And in truth, I can't alter them to appease someone else's appetite. These are my experiences, my feelings, my thoughts, lessons I have learned, and the life I call my own. In this book, I open my soul to you and allow you to dwell into the depths of me. So welcome to the core of what makes me what I am. Welcome to the place deep within me where something roars.
