Theology Through Preaching:

Theology Through Preaching Colin E. Gunton, 2005-05-30 This is a carefully chosen collection of some thirty sermons by Colin Gunton with a foreword by Christoph Schwobel Together they provide a broad overview of the Christian faith An introduction by Professor Christoph Schwobel includes a sustained reflection on the importance of theological preaching These sermons and their theological significance by one of the world's foremost theologians will be of interest not only to preachers professional and lay but also to theologians and students

Christian Preaching Michael Pasquarello III, 2011-06-28 Michael Pasquarello has written a must read book articulating a Trinitarian vision for preaching His compelling argument is richly informed by traditional biblical hermeneutics creedal history understood as storied attestation of the witness of Scripture and liturgical theology and practice considered as embodied performance of the Bible's divine narrative Here is a clear summons to the church to abandon all lesser homiletic aims and to prayerfully and faithfully proclaim the holy gospel to the glory of God Charles L Bartow Princeton Theological Seminary Like all of Michael Pasquarello's work his newest book not only upholds the classical Christian tradition but also breathes new vitality into it In an era in which preaching is reduced to persuasive communication Pasquarello reminds us that the Christian message has a content that originates in and gives expression to the Father Son and Holy Spirit Richard Lischer Duke Divinity School One of the refreshing things about this fine book by Michael Pasquarello is that when he thinks about the ministry of preaching he is not afraid to measure the breadth historically or plumb the depths theologically Pasquarello has written this book like a good sermon faithfully thoughtfully prayerfully and with a profound word to speak We are in his debt Thomas G Long Candler School of Theology Boldly challenging homiletical accommodation to American culture Pasquarello seeks to change the subject of preaching from method and marketing to the Triune God who is the source and goal of our speech A welcome theological vision of preaching Charles L Campbell Columbia Theological Seminary Christian Preaching brings together two disciplines that have sadly grown apart such that they almost developed irreconcilable differences preaching and theology Pasquarello offers a brilliant critique of theology as technique and draws on the theology and sermons of Irenaeus Augustine Luther Wesley and others convincingly demonstrating that effective pragmatic preaching requires substantive theological engagement and vice versa This book accomplishes its purpose so well that it should be used not only in preaching courses but also in basic theology courses No preacher should be let loose on a congregation without passing through Pasquarello's Christian Preaching D Stephen Long Marquette University

God's Word Through Preaching John Hall, 1875

A Theology of Preaching Richard Lischer, 2001-06-08 Richard Lischer's book is a stirring affirmation of preaching's importance as a major enterprise in its own right It is he writes a theological preface whose aim is to show how theology informs preaching and how preaching as a kerygmatic oral practical activity informs theology and brings it to its final form of expression Dr Lischer points to the historically negative results of preaching's exclusion from theology and then shows the benefits derived from the proper interaction of the two disciplines As he elaborates on this theme he explores the centrality of the Resurrection in both theology and preaching the relation of the law and the gospel and how preaching calls upon theology to recover its oral aural foundation For Lischer the act of preaching is an exercise of the preacher s imagination The real work of imagination is not inserting clever stories or esthetically pleasing images into the argument of the sermon It is knowing how to read texts in such a way that they will be allowed to function according to their original power and intent

Paul's Theology of Preaching Duane Litfin,2015-06-22 Duane Litfin former president of Wheaton College explores how Paul s theology of preaching can inform the church s preaching today Through a detailed study of 1 Corinthians 1 4 Litfin shows how Paul s method of proclamation differed from Greco Roman rhetoric and how Pauline preaching can be a model for the contemporary preaching task

Preaching is Believing Ronald J. Allen,2002-01-01 In Preaching Is Believing Allen calls for preachers to help congregations cultivate a systematic approach to Christian faith and life by bringing systematic theology directly into the pulpit

Christian Preaching Michael Pasquarello,2006 There are many books that give preachers hints about engaging speaking or methods for creating sermons This homiletics primer focuses not on the how to of preaching but on the theological foundation of the very act of preaching itself introducing students and pastors to a thorough understanding of why they preach or will preach Michael Pasquarello III takes a biblical and historical look at preaching calling all preachers to think theologically regardless of denomination audience or preaching style when they proclaim the Word of God Each chapter concludes with a sermon example that shows the practical way that such theology works itself into the pulpit Publisher

Theology Through Preaching Colin E. Gunton, This is a carefully chosen collection of some thirty sermons by Colin Gunton with a foreword by Christoph Schwobel Together they provide a broad overview of the Christian faith An introduction by Professor Christoph Schwobel includes a sustained reflection on the importance of theological preaching These sermons and their theological significance by one of the world s foremost theologians will be of interest not only to preachers professional and lay but also to theologians and students

Preaching That Makes the Word Plain William Clair Turner,2008-03-15 This work includes essays in preaching method and a series of sermons on Romans 10 a mini treatise on preaching It reflects on the tasks of preaching and teaching preaching as a form of communication that is critical to the life of the church Despite the numerous existing volumes useful texts are still needed The quest is for methods of preparation that can be applied with consistency and that suggest habits for labor which can be tedious or cause tasteless outcomes The volume is intended as a contribution to replenishing voices that already have spoken ably and eloquently It is located in the praxis of one who preaches with weekly regularity while at the same time teaching homiletics It aims at absorbing and synthesizing proven methods while relating them to a generation that lives in the tensions of faithfulness to the gospel of Jesus Christ the decline of a Christian consensus in the culture the rise of secularism and competition from other religions Added to that is the challenge of vying for space in the public sphere with countless social prophets such as talk show hosts radio commentators screen writers and entertainers with various agendas What one finds in the following pages is a venture of service to the newly called the fledgling preachers the veterans as well as those who teach It dares to challenge proverbs like It is better caught than taught or Those who know don t tell and those who tell don t know It risks a word in an attempt to speak reflectively about a task that is daunting to the novice and as near to a veteran as a second skin It is a brazen attempt to step out of comfortable skin to tell another how it feels from the inside It hazards a gesture to say how to do the work with confidence without becoming arrogant How do you scratch the pad or go to a blank computer screen from week to week By what means does one glean and give a fresh word before the exhaustion of delivering the last word has abated Web sites that supply sermons are in the public domain and can easily be discovered The challenge for those who mount the pulpit from week to week does not relent The labor reflected in these pages is born of the bias that all preaching can be improved with study reflection and critical assistance Thinking Theologically Ronald J. Allen,2008-01 An excellent introductory text this is the first volume in the new Elements of Preaching series Helps preachers discern their own working theology as it is expressed in their sermon Brief bibliographies accompany each chapter

Ordained to Preach Charles E. Miller,2003-07-21 The theology practice of preaching A Theology of Preaching and Dialectic Aaron P. Edwards,2018-07-12 How does the preacher know what God might say now based upon the many things God said then Preachers and theologians throughout Christian history have grappled with Scripture s diverse emphases alongside the urgent task of declaring the authoritative Word of God in the contemporary pulpit Aaron Edwards offers a new way of engaging with this problem by exploring the theological relationship between biblical dialectics and heraldic proclamation Edwards highlights the theological necessity of dialectical variety without forfeiting assertiveness in the prophetic moment of preaching A vast array of key voices from the theological tradition are drawn upon including Augustine Aquinas Eckhart Luther Calvin Hegel Kierkegaard Chesterton Barth Bultmann Tillich Ebeling and others to navigate the connection between Scriptural unity clarity and paradoxical plurivocality leading to a nuanced account of dialectic Applying this to the homiletically neglected concept of heraldic confidence in preaching Edwards examines the theological possibility of preaching in light of dialectical complexity via its prophetic dimension He shows how the uniquely revelatory relationship of Word and Spirit enables Scriptural illumination prophetic discernment and dialectical decisiveness in the momentary encounter which undergirds all Christian proclamation Preaching in the New Testament Jonathan Griffiths,2017-03-14 Is preaching mandated in the post apostolic context and if so how does it relate to the preaching of the Old Testament prophets and of Jesus and his apostles In this NSBT volume Jonathan Griffiths seeks answers to these questions in the New Testament surveying the Scripture and setting his exegetical findings within the context of biblical theology Preaching God's Grand Drama Ahmi Lee,2019-10-15 How can preachers preach biblically faithful sermons that move listeners to positive action An author on the cutting edge of contemporary homiletics and theology offers a fresh approach to preaching that helps listeners see themselves as actors in God's grand drama Ahmi Lee presents a unifying third way in homiletical approaches i.e. theodramatic that reimagines the preacher's role in relation to the Bible the congregation and the world The book not only helps students understand various preaching models but also is relevant to working preachers who want to critique and improve their approach Foreword by Mark Labberton Homiletical Theology in Action David Schnasa

Jacobsen,2015-11-17 Homiletics is taking a theological turn But what does the preaching task look like if we think of it not so much as a mastery of technique but an exercise in theological method Homiletical Theology in Action The Unfinished Theological Task of Preaching tries to envision the work of homiletics as theological in root and branch By placing theological questions at the center of the process the authors some of the leading lights of the field of homiletics try to show how their work as preachers and homileticians is a thoroughgoing theological activity By beginning with troublesome texts and problematic doctrines they seek to show how preachers and homileticians engage in theology not as consumers but as producers and in the thick of the kinds of questions that preachers have to ask Practitioners and theological educators alike will catch a glimpse of how they too are residential theologians in their own preaching praxis An Evangelical Theology of Preaching

Donald English,1996-03-01 By exploring the biblical basis for preaching Donald English shows how fundamental theological issues pertain to the proclamation of the Word He provides a theological basis for preaching practical insights regarding the movement from text to sermon and practical guidance in preparing for Sunday worship 1 and 2 Timothy, Titus Abraham Kuruvilla MD,2021-04-12 1 and 2 Timothy Titus A Theological Commentary for Preachers engages hermeneutics for preaching employing theological exegesis that enables the preacher to utilize all the units of these epistles to craft effective sermons This commentary unpacks the crucial link between Scripture and application the theology of each preaching text pericope The three letters collectively the Pastoral Epistles are divided into eighteen pericopes and what the author is doing with what he is saying in each is explored The overall theological trajectory of the Pastoral Epistles concerns the promotion of God's economy by the community of God's people The specific theological thrust of individual preaching units is captured in this commentary making possible a sequential homiletical movement through each pericope of the three epistles While the primary goal of the commentary is to take the preacher from text to theology it also provides two sermon outlines for each of the eighteen preaching units of the Pastoral Epistles The unique approach of this work results in a theology for preaching commentary that promises to be useful for anyone teaching through 1 and 2 Timothy and Titus with an emphasis on application Speaking God's Words Peter Adam,2004 There are many books on preaching but few if any

on the theology of preaching Yet whether it is recognized or not theology underlies any preaching that claims to be biblical In Speaking God's Words Peter Adam builds confidence in preaching by laying a firm theological foundation for it Preaching rests upon three great pillars God has spoken his words are now recorded in Scripture and he commissions people to explain preach and teach his written words to their contemporaries Throughout the book using well chosen illustrations Dr Adam encourages preachers to give themselves to the demanding yet thrilling task of preaching God's words today Preaching as a Theological Task David Buttrick, Thomas G. Long, Edward Farley, 1996-01-01 How do particular world situations impact preaching How does a preacher use the gospel and Scripture to speak to those situations This volume in honor of homiletician David Buttrick explores the complex and important relationships between world gospel and Scripture and their relevance for preaching theology This book is for those seeking thoughtful and challenging new ways to approach the preaching task now and into the twenty first century Homiletical Theology David Schnasa Jacobsen, 2015-02-13 Karl Barth famously argued that all theology is sermon preparation But what if all sermon preparation is actually theology This book pursues a thoroughgoing theological vision for the practice of preaching as a way of doing theology The idea is not just that homiletics is the realm of theological application That would leave preaching in the position of simply implementing a theology already arrived at Instead the vision in these pages is of a form of theology that begins with preaching itself its practice its theories and its contexts Homiletical theology is thus a unique way of doing theology even a constructive theological task in its own right Homiletician David Schnasa Jacobsen has assembled several of the leading lights of contemporary homiletics to help to see its task ever more deeply as theological yet in profoundly diverse ways Along the way readers will not only discover how homileticians do theology homiletically but will deepen the way in which they understand their own preaching as a theological task
