We Interrupt This Program Miranda J. Brady,John M.H. Kelly,2017-11-01 We Interrupt This Program tells the story of how Indigenous people are using media tactics in the realms of art film television and journalism to rewrite Canada s national narratives from Indigenous perspectives Miranda Brady and John Kelly showcase the diversity of these interventions by offering personal accounts and reflections on key moments witnessing survivor testimonies at the Truth and Reconciliation Commission attending the opening night of the ImagineNative Film Media Festival and discussing representations of Indigenous people with artists such as Kent Monkman and Dana Claxton and with CBC journalist Duncan McCue These scene setting moments bring to life their argument that media tactics as articulations of Indigenous sovereignty have the power not only to effect change from within Canadian institutions and through established mediums but also to spark new forms of political and cultural expression in Indigenous communities and among Indigenous youth Theoretically sophisticated and eminently readable We Interrupt This Program reveals how seemingly unrelated acts by Indigenous activists across Canada are decolonizing our cultural institutions from within one intervention at a time
