We Live:

We Live Inside a Story Megan McKenna,2010 In the realm of the Spirit and when dealing with our own souls and the souls of others we are often at a loss for words We have a sense maybe even an image of what we want to share ask or communicate but words are harder to find and express Stories are the glue that hold us together in whatever groups we belong to even if we only visit or find ourselves on the margins In a sense our God is a story being told and God is seeking for all of us to listen to enter into the story and become one Megan McKenna uses images of Russian nesting dolls to illustrate the many layers of the stories that exist in each of our lives particularly in relation to the Spirit Stories are critical to living and are intertwined with truth in such a way that we can carry them with us remember them and pass them along sharing them as needed We live inside a story We live inside God
