Walkabout Northern California Tom Courtney, 2011-04-01 Europe is renowned for romantic inn to inn vacation opportunities on paths worn by centuries of travelers Modern day trekkers can hike the Alps or Southern France explore the British Isles at three miles an hour or pilgrimage through Northern Spain to Santiago de Compostela stopping each night at a hostel or inn Now adventurers in California are creating a new tradition of multi day treks from inn to inn in the U S Walkabout Northern California Hiking Inn to Inn describes twelve walks or walkabouts along the wild Pacific Coast through the majestic Sierra Nevada Mountains in the Cascades and through the parklands around the San Francisco Bay Each walkabout organized by individual chapters contains all the information to create a memorable and invigorating vacation with a sketch map recommendations for optional maps mile by mile details of the route and logistical tips on places to stay and eat Many trips contain variations for different lengths of time and budgets With a light daypack and a few reservations hikers can travel for days on California s breathtaking coastline or in mountain ranges Each day on a walkabout ends with a comfortable bed a glass of wine a good meal and maybe even a hot tub Some of the hikes can take a week but many can be enjoyed in a weekend Some are challenging but the majority are perfect for the casual hiker The accommodations for the walkabouts include a B B perched on the cliffs above the Pacific a resort on the shore of a Sierra lake a historic hotel in a coastal village a hostel in a national park and a retreat center that soothes the soul Lost Angel Walkabout Linda

Ballou, 2011-09 Lost Angel Walkabout One Traveler s Tales is a spirited collection of travel narratives recounting the haps mishaps and serendipitous adventures that give travel writer Linda Ballou a sense of wonder and delight Some of the stories like Falling in the Footsteps of John Muir and Look Both Ways on Small Islands are reflections that might make you glad you stayed home while River Wise could inspire you to toss the TV clicker out the window and to explore our beautiful planet All of the stories take you to special places where you share the sensual experience of being there without straining one muscle getting altitude sickness or tipping your canoe This is an eclectic mix of tales filled with chills spills giggles and squeaks

Weather as Medium Janine Randerson, 2018-10-30 An exploration of artworks that use weather or atmosphere as the primary medium creating new coalitions of collective engagement with the climate crisis In a time of climate crisis a growing number of artists use weather or atmosphere as an artistic medium collaborating with scientists local communities and climate activists Their work mediates scientific modes of knowing and experiential knowledge of weather probing collective anxieties and raising urgent ecological questions oscillating between the big picture systems view and a ground based perspective In this book Janine Randerson explores a series of meteorological art projects from the 1960s to the present that draw on sources ranging from dynamic technological and physical systems to indigenous cosmology Randerson finds a precursor to today's meteorological art in 1960s artworks that were weather driven and infused with the new sciences of chaos and indeterminacy and she examines work from this period by artists including Hans Haacke Fujiko Nakaya and Aotearoa New Zealand kinetic sculptor Len Lye She looks at live experiences of weather in art in particular Fluxus performance and contemporary art that makes use of meteorological data streams and software She describes the use of meteorological instruments including remote satellite sensors to create affective atmospheres online projects and participatory performances that create a new form of social meteorology works that respond directly to climate change many from the Global South artist activists who engage with the earth's diminishing cryosphere and a speculative art in the form of quasi scientific experiments Art's current eddies of activity around the weather Randerson writes perturb the scientific hold on facts and offer questions of value in their place Walkabout, 1965 Washington Walkabout Steve Breakstone, 1992
