Teaching Composition:

Eight Approaches to Teaching Composition Timothy R. Donovan, Ben W. McClelland, 1980 Concepts in Composition Irene L. Clark, 2011-09-01 Concepts in Composition Theory and Practice in the Teaching of Writing is designed to foster reflection on how theory impacts practice enabling prospective teachers to develop their own comprehensive and coherent conception of what writing is or should be and to consider how people learn to write This approach allows readers to assume the dual role of both teacher and student as they enter the conversation of the discipline and become familiar with some of the critical issues New to this second edition are up to date primary source readings a focus on collaborative writing practices and collaborative learning additional assignments and classroom activities an emphasis on new media and information literacy and their impact on the teaching of writing These new directions will inform the content of this revision reflecting significant advancements in the field Each chapter addresses a particular theoretical concept relevant to classroom teaching and includes activities to help readers establish the connection between theoretical concepts and classroom lessons Online resources include overviews classroom handouts exercises a sample syllabus and PowerPoint presentations Bringing together scholars with expertise in particular areas of composition this text will serve as an effective primer for students and educators in the field of composition theory A Study of the Teaching of English Composition in Teachers Colleges in the United States Leon Renfroe Meadows, 1928 Teaching College Composition William Murdick, 2013 Teaching Composition at the Two-Year College Patrick Sullivan, Christie Toth, 2016-08-26 By translating theory and scholarship into concrete classroom practice in thoughtful and successful ways Teaching Composition at the Two Year College addresses the unique and specific needs of the two year college teacher scholar who teaches composition While providing an overview of the current state of scholarship related to teaching composition at the two year college it also emphasizes classroom based concerns with particular attention to the question most important to many teachers Scholarship and theory is all well and good but what do I do in the classroom on Monday The collection includes classic or important theoretical essays in the field many of them written by two year college practitioners followed by essays written by two year college teacher scholars that suggest how composition scholarship and theory might translate to the distinctive setting of the two year college

Teaching Composition Alvina Treut Burrows, 1959 The "Why's" of Teaching Composition, 1978 Teaching L2 Composition Dana R. Ferris, John Hedgcock, 2013-10-01 This popular comprehensive theory to practice text is designed to help teachers understand the task of writing L2 writers the different pedagogical models used in current composition teaching and reading writing connections Moving from general themes to specific pedagogical concerns it includes practice oriented chapters on the role of genre task construction course and lesson design writing assessment feedback error treatment and classroom language grammar vocabulary style instruction Although all topics are firmly grounded in relevant research a distinguishing feature of the text is the array of hands on practical examples materials and tasks that pre and in service teachers can use to develop the complex skills involved in teaching second language writing Each chapter includes Questions for Reflection Further Reading and Resources Reflection and Review and Application Activities An ideal text for L2 teacher preparation courses courses that include both L1 and L2 students and workshops for instructors of L2 writers in academic secondary and postsecondary settings the accessible synthesis of theory and research enables readers to see the relevance of the field s knowledge base to their own present or future classroom settings and student writers

Research on Written Composition George Hillocks (Jr.),1986 Teaching Composition/teaching Literature Michelle M. Tokarczyk,Irene Papoulis,2003 Most faculty members of college and university English departments would acknowledge frequent interdepartmental tensions between faculty members who specialize in literature and those who specialize in composition Yet many literature faculty regularly teach composition and or have administrative responsibilities in writing programs and writing centers Teaching Composition Teaching Literature Crossing Great Divides is an anthology of articles by faculty who reject the low status commonly assigned to composition and articulate ways to combine literature and composition as teachers and scholars Ultimately these essays signal possible ways to repair the rift between the divisions
