Unpublished Correspondence:

Album Roland Barthes, 2018-02-13 Album provides an unparalleled look into Roland Barthes's life of letters. It presents a selection of correspondence from his adolescence in the 1930s through the height of his career and up to the last years of his life covering such topics as friendships, intellectual adventures, politics, and aesthetics. It offers an intimate look at Barthes's thought processes and the everyday reflection behind the composition of his works, as well as a rich archive of epistolary friendships spanning half a century among the leading intellectuals of the day. Barthes was one of the great observers of language and culture, and Album shows him in his element, immersed in heady French intellectual culture and the daily struggles to maintain a writing life. Barthes's correspondents include Maurice Blanchot, Michel Butor, Jacques Derrida, Michel Foucault, Julia Kristeva, Claude Lévi-Strauss, Georges Perec, Raymond Queneau, Alain Robbe-Grillet, Marthe Robert, and Jean Starobinski, among others. The book also features documents, letters, and postcards reproduced in facsimile, unpublished material, and notes and transcripts from his seminars. The first English language publication of Barthes's letters, Album is a comprehensive testimony to one of the most influential critics and philosophers of the twentieth century and the world of letters in which he lived and breathed. Some Unpublished Correspondence of David Garrick (Classic Reprint) George Pierce Baker,2015-07-26 Excerpt from Some Unpublished Correspondence of David Garrick In June 1899 a collection of some sixty six letters and MSS of David Garrick was offered for sale at Sotheby s Auction Rooms London The material had been collected by William Wright a racing man who having the fad of extra illustrating had gathered for that purpose this collection and many other letters some of them not concerning Garrick Nearly all the letters and MSS of the set and a number of others by Garrick offered at the same time were bought by Mr J H Leigh owner of a rich collection of theatrical portraits and memorabilia Originally it was his intention to use his purchases for extra illustrating but as soon as their unusual value became apparent he decided to keep the letters and MSS together and when urged to print them very courteously put the collection at the disposal of the editor for such publication as he should think best The letters interestingly fill gaps in Boaden s huge and inept Private Correspondence of David Garrick make important corrections in the biographies of Garrick and throw much light on the man himself In this book some forty letters and MSS are printed all except two for the first time Only parts of these two have before been reproduced About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Correspondence Jonathan Swift,1912

Serampore Letters William Carey,2015-07-06 Excerpt from Serampore Letters Being the Unpublished Correspondence of William Carey and Others With John Williams 1800 1816 The introduction of Mr Wright presents very clearly the English setting of the letters included in this collection and the notes which have been interspersed among them give sufficient explanation to form a continuous narrative A word however may be premised here as to the special interest of the letters in connection with the centennial of the Baptist Missionary Society The letters throw a new and unexpected light on the American connection with the Serampore Mission of the English Baptists The obstacles placed in the way of the English missionaries by the East India Company made it necessary for them to make the voyage by way of America and they were thrown on the hospitality of their American brethren A regular correspondence thus sprang up between the society at home and the Serampore missionaries carried on from this country mainly by Dr William Rogers of Philadelphia and the Rev John Williams of New York About the Publisher
