Valuing Our Differences:

Gender Intelligence Barbara Annis, Keith Merron, 2014-05-13 World renowned experts on gender intelligence Barbara Annis and Keith Merron suggest it's time to move beyond arguments based on politics and fairness building an economic business case for gender diversity in the workplace Despite forty years of laws quotas diversity training and legal expenses aimed toward equalizing pay opportunities and working conditions between the sexes the glass ceiling remains firmly intact For too long companies have played the numbers game attempting to tackle gender imbalance by forcing affirmative action policies and numeric standards on organizations to increase the representation of women in management Yet these efforts have rarely been sustained In this groundbreaking comprehensive analysis based on more than twenty five years of in depth surveys involving 100 000 men and women across dozens of Fortune 500 companies Barbara Annis and Keith Merron provide a deeper understanding of the multiplicity of forces that have combined to create and perpetuate gender inequality Gender Intelligence exposes common false assumptions that prevent men and women from successfully performing together at work myths exacerbated by worn out theories of gender blindness and sameness thinking It shows how a small but growing number of courageous leading edge companies have broken through the barriers to successfully advance women making the remarkable transformation from compliance to choice from pressure to preference and show how it can be done in any business Gender Intelligence features 17 illustrations

Valuing Diversity Lewis Griggs, Lente-Louise Louw, 1995 Learning to manage diversity in today's workplace is critical because of the productivity gains that inevitably result when individuals in a well managed heterogeneous work team call upon their differing insights values and experiences to tackle tough business challenges This breakthrough book provides just such an easy to follow training map Illustrated

Critical Legal Education as a Subversive Activity Helen Gibbon, Ben Golder, Lucas Lixinski, Marina Nehme, Prue Vines, 2015-10-16 In an age when everyone aspires to teach critical thinking skills in the classroom what does it mean to be a subversive law teacher Who or what might a subversive law teacher seek to subvert the authority of the law the university their own authority as teachers perhaps Are law students ripe for subversion agents of or impediments to subversion Do they learn to ask critical questions Responding to the provocation in the classic book Teaching as a Subversive Activity by Postman and Weingartner the idea that teaching could or even should be subversive still holds true today and its premise is particularly relevant in the context of legal education We therefore draw on this classic book to discuss in the present volume the consideration of research into legal education as lifetime learning as creating meaning as transformative and as developing world changing thinking within the legal context The volume offers research into classroom experiences and theoretical and historical interrogations of what it means to teach law subversively Primarily aimed at legal educators and doctoral students in law planning careers as academics its insights speak directly to tensions in higher education more broadly

Vault/Inroads Guide to Diversity Internship, Co-op and Entry-level Programs, 2005 For minority law students or attorneys no factor is more important in deciding where to work than the quality of a firm's diversity program is central to their decision The Power of Perception Shawn Andrews, 2017-12-18 The Power of Perception Leadership Emotional Intelligence and the Gender Divide serves as a practical guide to educate women, men, and organizations on the barriers that keep women from fully contributing in the workplace. These include differences in leadership style and emotional intelligence, gender bias and stereotypes, breadwinner and caregiver responsibilities, and differences in gender culture which show up every day at work and home. The Power of Perception also explores significant changes in global demographic trends and how our youngest generations are impacting the workplace. The Power of Perception clearly illustrates the reasons that we don't see more women leading our global businesses. It has nothing to do with women's skills and competencies and everything to do with perceptions of women as leaders, as workers, as mothers, and as wives. These perceptions have a significant impact on promotion for many women. Perception is reality, and it's powerful. The Power of Perception provides personal stories of women's journeys, real-world examples, and is based on the author's own research as well as that of many others. Every chapter includes practical, easy-to-apply strategies, summary points, and reflection questions to empower women, men, and organizations to fully leverage talent and diversity. Religious Leadership Sharon Henderson Callahan, 2013-05-20 This 2-volume set within The SAGE Reference Series on Leadership tackles issues relevant to leadership in the realm of religion. It explores such themes as the contexts in which religious leaders move, leadership in communities of faith, leadership as taught in theological education and training, religious leadership impacting social change and social justice, and more. Topics are examined from multiple perspectives, traditions, and faiths. Features/Benefits: By focusing on key topics with 100 brief chapters, we provide students with more depth than typically found in encyclopedia entries but with less jargon or density than the typical journal article or research handbook chapter. Signed chapters are written in language and style that is broadly accessible. Each chapter is followed by a brief bibliography and further readings to guide students to sources for more in-depth exploration in their research journeys. A detailed index, cross-references between chapters, and an online version enhance accessibility for today's student audience.

Women's Activism, Feminism, and Social Justice Margaret A. McLaren, 2019-08-15 Informed by practices of women's activism in India, this book proposes a feminist social justice framework to address the wide range of issues women face globally, including economic exploitation, sexist oppression, racial/ethnic and caste oppression, and cultural imperialism. Using an interdisciplinary approach, the book argues that current frameworks for global justice, such as human rights, need to be supplemented by a relational framework that includes resistance to economic exploitation and social oppression.

Mentor for Life Natasha Sistrunk Robinson, 2016-03-01 Today's Christian women do not simply want nice fellowships and cookie-cutter answers about how to deal with life. Though churches are filled with good ministry programming, activities, outreach events, and an endless selection of options, many churches neglect their fundamental mission to make disciples. Christian women want to mentor and to be mentored, though they may not fully understand what that means, the significance of this desire or how to get there The church must rise to answer these questions meet life s challenges and develop creative ways of equipping modern women to mentor well In Mentor for Life Natasha Sistrunk Robinson lays a solid foundation for mentoring that is based on God s kingdom vision challenges women to consider the cost of discipleship and the high calling they have received in Christ It shows how to develop mentoring relationships that function communally in existing small groups that are diverse and inclusive It also presents a mentoring framework of knowing and loving God understanding our identity in Christ and loving our neighbor which encourages theological reflection and cultivates a basic Christian worldview Filled with examples from Robinson s experience in the military and business world this resource gives readers the wisdom they need to disciple others and as a foundation for kingdom service A Study in the Theory of Value David Wight Prall,1918 Journal of the Society of Dyers and Colourists Society of Dyers and Colourists,1895 For all interested in the use or manufacture of colours and in calico printing bleaching etc Proceedings of the State Board of Equalization of Michigan Michigan.
