Unknown God:

The Unknown God Steven Carter, 2020-10-13 There is a very interesting account found in Acts 17:22-23 in which the Apostle Paul was waiting for Silas and Timothy in Athens. While he waited he was provoked within his spirit when he found the city was given over to idols. Paul addressed the men of Athens by saying, "In all things you are very religious, for as I was passing through and considering the objects of your worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Therefore the One whom you worship without knowing Him, I proclaim to you. It is startling to know that the men of Athens were religious; they had objects of worship and they had an altar, yet they didn't even know the God of their worship. We know altars to be a place of sacrifice, prayer, and religion, but the question arises: How do you worship whom you don't even know? Even Jesus gives us a glimpse into the importance of knowing Him intimately in Matthew 7:22-23. Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness.' NKJV. Note that Jesus's emphasis was not on rituals but rather on relationship. We must ask ourselves today: are we any different from the men of Athens? I'm afraid that week after week we fill edifices with people who don't even know God. Sure, we have objects of worship, we have buildings, instruments, podiums, microphones, lighting, etc., but do we know the God of our worship? With the help of the Holy Spirit, I will declare as the great apostle did to the men of Athens: The Unknown God

"The Unknown God"? Sir Henry Thompson, 1902 The Unknown God, a Sermon [on Acts xvii. 23]. Thomas SPENCER (Perpetual Curate of Hinton Charterhouse.), 1851 God's Quest Lyman C.D. Kulathungam, 2019-12-09 Why bother with God when he is viewed as a sacred superstition, a discarded non-entity, or a pretext for religious wars? Jews and Christians have doubted and discarded God at many times throughout the ages and have also justified countless conflicts in his name. Their history, however, tells a different story. Here we observe the historical reality of God's relentless quest to relate with people, whether Jew or gentile. Despite significant differences between these communities, this is the DNA that binds them and places them in a paradigm different from the one articulated in The Quest for Christ. Amidst the Quest, where people are seeking to be freed from their predicament, the Judeo-Christian narrative shows God's incessant quest orchestrated through various channels: such as scriptural revelation, miraculous interventions, covenantal commitments, divine presence in the tabernacle or the temple, God's sacrificial incarnation in Christ, and the advent of the anticipated Jewish Messiah. The narrative climaxes in a grand finale when humans and their habitat will be ushered into an age of peace and harmony. Journeying through such a narrative will provide assurance that God is walking with you amidst life's turmoil and that the best is yet to be.
