Guinn, 2005-05 The ability to read and evaluate the flood of information and ideas available today is a skill that daily becomes increasingly essential. This book presents a concise and insightful program to develop and enhance reading skills and analytical thinking. Goals of Democracy Samuel Proctor McCutchen, 1965 The Canadian Anthology of Social Studies Roland Case, Penney Clark, 1999 The Goal of Critical Thinking Debbie Walsh, 1986 Beyond the Modern-postmodern Struggle in Education Ilan Gur-Ze'ev, 2007 This book is an attempt to historically and conceptually address the present human condition and the current specific role of education as a distinctively creative symbolic violence. In doing so, the book reevaluates the various manifestations and conflicting alternatives to normalizing education. The author suggests a unique Diasporic counter education that transcends modern politics, postmodern philosophical assumptions, and spiritual telos towards an impetus for the re-birth of what the author refers to as the enduring improviser. It is a first step towards a new critical language that addresses the challenges of globalizing capitalism, of the cyberspace of racism, and of the new antisemitism that springs from postcolonialism. The book calls for a creative rearticulation of the relations between the aesthetic, the ethical, the intellectual, and the bodily dimensions of the cosmos and human life. It is an invitation for a new Diasporic religiosity, one which turns courageously towards the exile of the gods. It addresses the ever-strengthening and tempting sophistication of the anti-humanistic dimensions of our postmodern pleasure machine, of pre-modern redemption projects, and of modern deceiving offers for emancipation. The book is of special relevance for students of critical sociology, critical philosophy, Jewish philosophy, cultural studies, feminist studies, education, and for all friends of the free spirit.
