

The Storrington Papers

It is 1928 when Sarah Goodwill goes to Maidenshall, a Victorian gothic mansion built on the site of a medieval monastery. There she is to become the private secretary of Major Charles Storrington, a career soldier now confined through injury to a wheelchair. Sarah's task is to assist him in the writing of a book based on the Storrington family history. She is entrusted with a bulging mass of dusty papers — diaries, letters, personal notes — which belonged to Charles's Edwardian ancestors. As Sarah pores over the faded writing she is struck afresh by the many parallels between the time she reads of and the present. For she herself seems to be re-creating in her own life the role of Hannah Knox, a lonely but ambitious spinster who had come to Maidenshall in 1840 to be governess to the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Storrington. Both women must care for a starved and difficult child, and the affections of both men in the same direction — until a sinister crime is committed. Slowly Maidenshall yields up its covered secrets, until for Sarah Goodwill and Hannah Knox to be brought quite unexpectedly together, and for present and past to be united.
