The Small Miracle:

The Small Miracle Paul Gallico,1952 Pepino is a ten year old orphan whose love and livelihood is a donkey called Violetta Violetta falls ill and Pepino in desperation seeks an audience with the Pope A Small Miracle Peter Collington,1999-10-07 It is Christmas eve An old woman is living in poverty in a caravan so she goes to the town with her accordion to earn some money for fuel and food Eventually she is forced to see her instrument and then by a cruel twist of fate she is robbed on her way home and left unconscious in the snow However her own good deeds earn her a wonderfully satisfying reward and a Christmas surprise Paul Gallico's The Small Miracle Paul Gallico,2003-10 When his beloved donkey becomes ill a young Italian boy is determined to take her to the crypt of St Francis in Assisi in hopes of making her well A Theory of Causation in the Social and Biological Sciences A. Reutlinger,2013-03-18 This first full length treatment of interventionist theories of causation in the social sciences the biological sciences and other higher level sciences the presents original counter arguments to recent trends in the debate and serves as useful introduction to the subject Paul Gallico's The Small Miracle Edward Cunningham,1973 When his pet donkey becomes ill a young Italian boy is convinced that only a visit to the crypt of St Francis of Assisi will make her well The Small Miracle Grand Theatre Collection (University of Guelph),Paul Gallico, Gregory Peterson, Randy Waldie, Charlotte Moore,1984 Philosophical Papers: Volume 3, Realism and Reason Hilary Putnam,1983-04-29 This is the third volume of Hilary Putnam s philosophical papers published in paperback for the first time The volume contains his major essays from 1975 to 1982 which reveal a large shift in emphasis in the realist position developed in his earlier work While not renouncing those views Professor Putnam has continued to explore their epistemological consequences and conceptual history He now crucially sees theories of truth and of meaning that derive from a firm notion of reference as inadequate Small Miracle Norman Krasna,1935 The Birth of a New South Africa T. R. H. Davenport,1998-01-01 Davenport describes the changes that took place leading to the end of apartheid the process of reconciliation among the various elements of South African society and discusses the country s peace making and constitution building efforts Globalization, Negotiation, and the Failure of Transformation in South Africa Michael H. Allen,2006-07-21 The book explains the social forces forms of consciousness and structural constraints that undermined Apartheid preserved national unity and yet later constrained democratic sovereignty as the imperatives of global markets clashed with the prior aspirations of the democratic revolution The Pitfalls of Liberal Democracy and Late Nationalism in South Africa M. Muiu,2008-12-08 This book compares African and Afrikaner nationalisms to demonstrate that the transition from apartheid to liberal democracy in South Africa was a neo colonial settlement that left the economy and the military and security sectors under the control of the white minority while increasing wide socioeconomic disparities between rich and poor The Small Miracle Paul William Gallico,1961 A small orphan boy whose only love and livelihood are a donkey named Violetta needs a small miracle when the animal falls ill The Small Miracle John McGreevey,1948 Philosophical

Letters of David K. Lewis David K. Lewis, 2020-10-29 David Kellogg Lewis 1911-2001 was one of the most influential philosophers of the twentieth century. He made significant contributions to almost every area of analytic philosophy including metaphysics, philosophy of language, philosophy of mind, and philosophy of science, and set the agenda for various debates in these areas which carry on to this day. In several respects, he remains a contemporary figure, yet enough time has now passed for historians of philosophy to begin to study his place in twentieth-century thought. His philosophy was constructed and refined not just through his published writing but also crucially through his life-long correspondence with fellow philosophers, including leading figures such as D. M. Armstrong, Saul Kripke, W. V. Quine, J. J. C. Smart, and Peter van Inwagen. His letters formed the undercurrent of his published work and became the medium through which he proposed many of his well-known theories and discussed a range of philosophical topics in depth. A selection of his vast correspondence over a 40-year period is presented here across two volumes. As metaphysics is arguably where Lewis made his greatest contribution, this forms the focus of Volume 1. Arranged under the broad areas of Causation, Modality, and Ontology, the letters offer an organic story of the origins, development, breadth, and depth of his metaphysics in its historical context, as well as a glimpse into the influence of his many interlocutors. This volume will be an indispensable resource for contemporary metaphysics and for those interested in the Lewisian perspective.

The Small Miracle Paul Gallico, 1973. When his pet donkey Violetta becomes ill, Pepino, a young Italian boy, is convinced that only a visit to the crypt of St. Francis of Assisi will make her well. Since the only way for Violetta to enter the crypt would be to take down part of the wall, Pepino and his friend Father Damico set off to visit the Pope to obtain the needed permission.

A Philosophical Guide to Conditionals Jonathan Bennett, 2003. The author, one of the world's leading authorities on the subject of conditional sentences, distills many years of work and teaching into A Philosophical Guide to Conditionals, an authoritative treatment of the subject.
