Un Aller Simple Roman:

Un Aller Simple Didier van Cauwelaert, 2011 , One-way Didier van Cauwelaert, 2003 It is on the plane to Morocco that events take an unexpected turn when Aziz pressed for details of a birthplace that is not his invents the fabulous story of Irghiz a valley paradise hidden from the world and now in danger of ruin From this moment on the attache forgets his original assignment and has only one mission to return Aziz to the Eldorado he left behind and save it from the ravages of modern progress So begins an initiatory journey that takes Aziz Jean Pierre and a disabused aristocrat named Valerie d Armeray de Villeneuve across a desert both real and mythic pursuing a vision of happiness as elusive as Irghiz itself BOOK JACKET France at the dawn of the twenty-first century, trends and transformations Marie-Christine W. Koop, Rosalie Vermette, 2000 This volume presents an overview of major cultural themes in contemporary France The section on politics deals with the issue of political cohabitation the evolution of the Communist Party the environment social systems and the European Union In the social arena the articles encompass the evolution of the family benefits for the elderly the education system and the social implications of graffiti The changing nature of French identity is brought to light through an analysis of the press and the debate on multiculturalism A review of cultural issues includes the notion of leisure the contemporary social novel the cosmopolitan tradition in French film and new cultural spaces The work concludes with perceptions of France from the United States as seen through diplomatic relations and remakes of french films and a final essay on France The various articles include numerous bibliographic references and will be of great interest to Francophiles academics and students of French language and culture French XX Bibliography William J. Thompson, 2006-09 Provides a listing available of books articles and book reviews concerned with French literature since 1885 This work is a reference source in the study of modern French literature and culture The bibliography is divided into three major divisions general studies author subjects arranged alphabetically and cinema Books and Pamphlets, Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1949 Immigrant Narratives in Contemporary France Susan Ireland, Patrice J. Proulx, 2001-04-30 The first comprehensive survey of its kind in English this book examines the experience of immigration as represented by authors who moved to France from the Caribbean the Maghreb sub Saharan Africa and Asia after World War II Essays by expert contributors address the literary productions of different ethnic groups while taking into account generational differences and the effects of class and gender The focus on immigration a subject which has moved to the center of many sensitive social and political debates raises questions related to cultural hybridity identity politics border writing and the status of minority literature within the traditional literary canon all of which constitute vital areas of research in literary cultural and historical studies today Included are broad socio historical chapters on general topics related to immigration along with chapters providing detailed readings of specific texts and authors A key objective of the book is to consider the ways in which literary texts by authors of immigrant origin explore what it means to be French and how these works shape debates about French national and cultural identity The contributors discuss such issues as cultural hybridity linguistic identity and the textualization and theorization of otherness Québec Studies, 1994 Thirty Days to Great French Jenny Barriol, 2007 Presents a simple approach to French grammar intended to give the reader a basic command of the language with a minimum of jargon and unnecessary material with an audio CD maps cultural tips and links to Internet sites Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi_re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi_re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age_Jean Renoir and René Clair_to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
