

Wedding Vow Example: Traditional

Dearest [Partner's Name],

From the moment our paths crossed, I knew my life was about to change in the most beautiful way. Today, standing here with you, I am overwhelmed with gratitude and joy. You are my best friend, my confidant, and my greatest love.

When I look back on our journey together, I am reminded of the countless moments that brought us to this day—the late-night conversations, the shared dreams, and the laughter that fills our days. You have shown me a love that is patient, kind, and unwavering. With you, I have found a home, a safe place where I can be my true self.

I vow to cherish you every day, to support you in all your endeavors, and to celebrate every success, no matter how small. I promise to stand by your side through the challenges we may face, to hold your hand and face them together, as partners and equals.

I vow to listen to you with an open heart and mind, to respect your opinions and feelings, and to always communicate honestly and openly. I promise to nurture our love, to never take it for granted, and to continually strive to be the best partner I can be.

You inspire me to be a better person, and I promise to encourage you to follow your passions and dreams. I vow to create a life filled with adventure, laughter, and love, to build a family and a future that reflects the values we hold dear.

Today, I give you my heart, my soul, and my unwavering commitment. I choose you, now and forever, as my partner, my love, and my best friend. Together, we will write the next chapters of our story, hand in hand, heart to heart.

I love you more than words can express, and I am honored to become your wife. Here's to our forever.

With all my love,

transformational journey to enlightenment we need a strong foundation in core Buddhist principles and practices to set us on the right track. The ngondro or preliminary practices are that very foundation; they not only prepare us for advanced practice but serve us in all we do. In this guide to the common and uncommon preliminary practices, His Holiness the Forty Second Sakya Trizin Ratna Vajra Rinpoche expertly gives us the grounded, practical, and illuminating teachings we need to set out on the path to buddhahood. Newcomers and seasoned practitioners alike will find practical guidance and profound wisdom to support them through their exploration of the preliminary practices. The common preliminary practices are the four thoughts that turn the mind away from the suffering of samsara and toward the Dharma: remembering the shortcomings of samsara, remembering the preciousness of a human rebirth, remembering impermanence, and remembering the law of karma. These teachings are shared among traditions and will accompany us all the way to buddhahood. The five uncommon preliminary practices are core to further Mahayana and Vajrayana practice: going for refuge in the Buddha, Dharma, and Sangha; developing bodhichitta, the enlightened mind; Vajrasattva practice, which clears negative karma; mandala offering, which will help us accumulate merit; and guru yoga, which facilitates our realization of the nature of mind. By using this guide, we can develop a deeper understanding of what Dharma practice truly encompasses and how we can authentically engage in it. His Holiness the Forty Second Sakya Trizin invites us to appreciate the profound significance of these preliminary practices and experience the transformative benefits they offer for both ourselves and all sentient beings.

Steps on the Path to Enlightenment Lhundub Sopa, 2004-06-15. Steps on the Path to Enlightenment: The Foundation Practices marks the first volume of a much anticipated comprehensive commentary on the Lamrim Chenmo by the renowned Buddhist scholar Geshe Sopa. This landmark commentary on what is perhaps the most elegant Tibetan presentation of the Buddhist path offers a detailed overview of Buddhist philosophy, especially invaluable to those wanting to enact the wisdom of the Buddha in their lives. In the Lamrim Chenmo, Tsongkhapa explains the path in terms of the three levels of practitioners: those of small capacity who seek happiness in future lives; those of medium capacity who seek liberation from the cycle of suffering; and those of great capacity who seek full enlightenment in order to benefit all beings. This volume covers the topics common to the first level. Tsongkhapa's explanations of the role of the teacher, his exhortation to take the essence of human existence, the contemplation of death and future lives, and going for the refuge. Given his vast knowledge and his experience in both Tibetan and Western contexts, Geshe Sopa is the ideal commentator of this work for the modern student of Tibetan Buddhism.
