The Emergence of Christian Theology Eric Francis Osborn,1993-04 There are special times of movement in the history of ideas and one such time as the author of this study shows was the second half of the second century when Christian thought showed fresh vigour By concentrating on five seminal Christian thinkers of the second century Justin Athenegoras Irenaeus Clement of Alexandria and Tertullian Eric Osborn illustrates how it was that Christianity made monotheism axiomatic to its central doctrinal claims while adapting too to the peculiar circumstances in which it developed The stimulus for new thought came from the objections of the state philosophers Jews Gnostics and Marcion who in different ways denied the Christian claim to faith in one God In response Christian thinkers argued for one God who was the first principle of being goodness and truth In its presentation of the lively beginning which brought Christianity and classical thought together this book casts light on the growth of the European intellectual tradition
