Father Dominic Jane and all the other residents of Lindfordshire are celebrating the New Year with parties and resolutions. None of them is aware of the trials and tribulations the coming months will bring, not least the horseman of the apocalypse who has set out quietly with barely a jingle of harness in a distant province of China. Return to Lindchester once more with Tales from Lindford, the fourth in the beloved series of novels from Catherine Fox, valiantly written in real time in the midst of the pandemic. This entertaining book captures the difficulties of 2020 with heart, humour, and insight. Perfect for Lindchester fans, it's also the ideal novel for anyone seeking comfort and a way of understanding all that has been happening. A twenty-first century Barchester that fans of Barbara Pym and the BBC's Rev will love, this new volume in the Lindchester Chronicles is contemporary Christian fiction at its finest. Tales from Lindford will make you laugh, cry, and leave you with hope that grace can be found even in the darkest times.

Land Kyōng-ni Pak, 1996. A novel of Korea dealing with a rebellion against the Japanese occupation early this century. Through the eyes of nobles and peasants is seen the conflict between nationalists who want to fight and conservative supporters of the status quo. The novel was made into a TV serial.
