Zither Autobiography:

Zither & Autobiography Leslie Scalapino, 2003 A reflective eclectic mixture of poetry and prose Autobiography Sir Hubert von Herkomer, 1890 It's Go in Horizontal Leslie Scalapino, 2008-04-08 The poems embody ideas about writing and formal inventions demonstrating how one invention leads to the next Jacket flap An Autobiography Mary Howitt, 1889

Theodore Thomas, a Musical Autobiography Theodore Thomas, 1905 Sound Changes Daniel Fischlin, Eric Porter, 2021-05-17 Sound Changes responds to a need in improvisation studies for more work that addresses the diversity of global improvisatory practices and argues that by beginning to understand the particular material experiences of sonic realities that are different from our own we can address the host of other factors that are imparted or sublimated in performance These factors range from the intimate affect associated with a particular performer's capacity to generate a distinctive voicing or the addition of an unexpected sonic intervention only possible with one particular configuration of players in a specific space and time Through a series of case studies drawn from Africa Asia the Americas and Oceania Sound Changes offers readers an introduction to a range of musical expressions across the globe in which improvisation plays a key role and the book demonstrates that improvisation is a vital site for the production of emergent social relationships and meanings As it does this work Sound Changes situates the increasingly transcultural dimensions of improvised music in relation to emergent networks and technologies changing patterns of migration and immigration shifts in the political economy of music and other social cultural and economic factors Improvisation studies is a recently developed but growing interdisciplinary field of study The discipline which has only truly come into focus in the early part of the twenty first century has been building a lexicon of key terms and developing assumptions about core practices Yet the full breadth of improvisatory practices has remained a vexed if not impossibly ambitious subject of study This volume offers a step forward in the movement away from critical tendencies that tend to homogenize and reduce practices and vocabularies in the name of the familiar

A Selective Bibliography for the Zither Jack L. Ralston, Gillian B. Anderson, 1981* Remembering Musical Childhoods in Vietnam Tina A. Huynh, 2024-08-06 This book offers an in depth exploration of the childhood musical experiences of Vietnamese elders providing a unique lens on the intersections between identity culture and music education Centering the stories of five Vietnamese Americans and one Vietnamese person who grew up in Vietnam between 1931 and 1975 the author considers the role that each individual's childhood musical experiences played in their life as they were impacted by war political movements and immigrant and refugee experiences The book adds a new perspective to research on the global music practices of children by exploring music transmission and repertoire in Vietnam in the context of political unrest and colonialism before and during the Vietnam War It also explores the evolution of the personal meanings and memories of music over a period of drastic change in each individual's life as five of six elders transitioned into a life in the United States This book provides both an act of cultural and musical preservation and relevant implications for music education today Situating the children s songs and games of Vietnamese culture in their original context the author invites those in the field of music education to consider how lived experiences and entrenched systems of teaching affect music learning and identity formation The volume includes a selection of Vietnamese children s songs games chants and musicopoetic lullabies ca dao offering ways to enrich music educators world music curricula Relevant to music education ethnomusicology and Asian American studies this book provides a nuanced account of Vietnamese children s music making of the past and presents an analysis of childhood musical experiences in a wider cultural sociopolitical and historical context
