Young Will:

Young Will Bruce Cook, 2005-12-27 A fresh and vivid re imagining of Shakespeare s early years in Stratford and in London It s 1616 and William Shakespeare is back in his native Stratford Upon Avon His extraordinary career as a playwright and poet in London seems like another world A strange encounter with a witch like madwoman in his local churchyard fills Will with dread and sends him reeling back in memory to those darker days in London along the filthy fevered banks of the Thames a time when politics plagiarism sexual passions and betrayed friendship conspired to the point of murder Author Bruce Cook perfectly captures Shakespeare s coming of age in a fresh and vivid way The actors teachers lovers and fellow writers spring to life in Shakespeare s confessions especially a talented twisted compelling and dangerous man called Kit Marlowe who would change Will s life forever Shakespeare speaks from first page to last and tells everything Literally everything
