Race, Modernity, Postmodernity W. Lawrence Hogue, 1996-01-01 Reads and interprets eight works of literature by people of color foregrounding the philosophical debate about modernity vs postmodernity rather than solely issues of race

Invisibility in African American and Asian American Literature Klara Szmańko, 2008-09-22 The book is a comparative study of the invisibility trope in African American and Asian American literature It distinguishes between various kinds of invisibility and offers a genealogy of the term while providing a theoretical dissection of the invisibility trope itself Investigating the various ways of striving for visibility the author places special emphasis on the need for cooperation among various racial groups While the book explores invisibility in a variety of African American and Asian American literary texts the main focus is on four novels Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man Sam Greenlee's The Spook Who Sat by the Door Maxine Hong Kingston's Tripmaster Monkey and Chang-rae Lee's Native Speaker The book not only sheds light on the oppressed but also exposes the structures of oppression and the apparatus of power which often renders itself invisible Throughout the study the author emphasizes that power is multi-directional never flowing only in one direction The book brings to light mechanisms of oppression within the dominant society as well as within and between marginalized racial groups

The Trickster Figure in American Literature Winifred Morgan, 2013-10-23 This book analyzes and offers fresh insights into the trickster tradition including African American American Indian Euro American Asian American and Latino stories Morgan examines the oral roots of each racial ethnic group to reveal how each group's history frustrations and aspirations have molded the tradition in contemporary literature

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Asian American Literature Guiyou Huang, 2008-12-30 Asian American literature dates back to the close of the 19th century and during the years following World War II it significantly expanded in volume and diversity Monumental in scope this encyclopedia surveys Asian American literature from its origins through 2007 Included are more than 270 alphabetically arranged entries on writers major works significant historical events and important terms and concepts Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical social cultural and legal contexts surrounding Asian American literature and central to the Asian American experience Each entry is written by an expert contributor and cites works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography of essential print and electronic resources While literature students will value this encyclopedia as a guide to writings by Asian Americans the encyclopedia also supports the social studies curriculum by helping students use literature to learn about Asian American history and culture as it pertains to writers from a host of Asian ethnic and cultural backgrounds including Afghans Chinese Japanese Koreans Filipinos Iranians Indians Vietnamese Hawaiians and other Asian Pacific Islanders The encyclopedia supports the literature curriculum by helping students learn more about Asian American literature In addition it supports the social studies curriculum by helping students learn about the Asian American historical and cultural experience
