Teaching Sermon:

God in Pain, 2010-09-01 Everyone understands human pain But many Christians have difficulty comprehending God's pain especially God's pain in the death of Christ Is it atonement or child abuse To speak of God in pain says Barbara Brown Taylor is not only to address the biblical stories of Christ's suffering and death but also to proclaim the God who is present in our pain This volume of teaching sermons on suffering presents different approaches to the problem of God in pain In each sermon Taylor speaks with sensitivity and profound insight as she addresses pain and both its human and divine impact

Preaching and Teaching from the Old Testament Walter C. Kaiser, Jr., 2003-03-01 Viewed as antiquated and remote the Old Testament is frequently neglected in the preaching and teaching ministry of the church But contrary to the prevailing attitude might the Old Testament contain relevant and meaningful application for today Renowned author and scholar Walter Kaiser shows why the Old Testament deserves equal attention with the New Testament and offers a helpful guide on how preachers and teachers can give it the full attention it deserves Growing out of his teaching material from the last decade Preaching and Teaching from the Old Testament demonstrates Kaiser's celebrated straightforward exposition Offering an apologetic for the Christian use of the Old Testament the opening chapters deal with the value problem and task of preaching from it Following a discussion of the role of expository preaching Kaiser provides a practical focus by examining preaching and teaching from the texts of various genres A final chapter explores the relevance of the Old Testament in speaking to a contemporary audience Bible teachers pastors seminary students and professors will appreciate Kaiser's practical focus and relevant applications Additional helps include a glossary and suggested outlines and worksheets for expository preaching

The Teaching Minister, 1991-01-01 With concise and practical guidelines for recovering the identity of the church Clark

Williamson and Ronald Allen demonstrate that the central task of ministry is teaching the Christian faith. The authors believe that how well ministers understand what is required of them and how well they do what is required of them is part of the problem of churches today as well as part of the solution.

Preaching to Teach Richard Voelz, 2019-08-06

Preaching to Teach merges the related functions of preaching and teaching and equips the reader to accomplish both. Preachers stand up to speak each week in challenging times to unsettled congregations. Each week seems to bring a new difficult subject: mass shootings and other forms of violence, hard conversations around race, ethnicity, and multi-religious contexts, immigration, poverty, climate change, foreign and domestic terrorism, and bickering about it all on social media. Preachers are hungry for ways to envision the work of preaching in these times as well as for tools that will help them speak to difficult and contentious topics. In a divided and weary world, preachers struggle with the choice of any number of images to describe their preaching identity. Responding to social crisis after social crisis, preachers most often lean toward the roles of pastor, prophet, or somewhere on the spectrum in between the two. Juggling between these images and their associated roles on a week-to-week basis can be exhausting. But there is an ancient image of the preacher that may help the preacher as teacher. The image of teacher has traditionally focused on content and rhetorical aspects of preaching: the preacher is conveying information, modeling theological reasoning, or effecting a certain pulpit style. But rather than focusing on traditional concepts of teaching to determine the content, form, style, or delivery of sermons, the field of critical pedagogy, represented by notable figures such as Paulo Freire, Henry Giroux, Peter McLaren, and bell hooks, offers a way of re-envisioning the preacher as teacher. Recasting the preacher as teacher through the lens of critical pedagogy grounds the image of teacher in an ethical framework, inviting preachers to redefine their public roles, stand in relationships of solidarity with communities of faith, break the silences of taboos, tackle tough issues, and re-imagine the world in the shape of the kingdom of God.

The Gospel of Matthew Daniel J. Harrington, 1991

Matthew wrote his Gospel from his perspective as a Jew. It is with sensitivity to this perspective that Father Harrington undertakes this commentary on the Gospel of Matthew. After an introduction, he provides a literal translation of each section in Matthew's Gospel and explains the textual problems, philological difficulties, and other matters in the notes. He then presents a literary analysis of each text: content, form, use of sources, structure. He examines the text against its Jewish background, situates it in the context of Matthew's debate with other first-century Jews, and reflects on its significance for Christian theology and Christian-Jewish relations. Bibliographies direct the reader to other important modern studies.

The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching, 2010-11-01

The New Interpreter's Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery. This resource is both scholarly and practical. It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline. It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice. Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition. When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors are homileticians preachers and writers in various disciplines who are committed to the pulpit through practice

Preaching and Sermon Construction Paul Bertie Bull,1922     Eight Sermons Preached Before the University of Oxford Edward Bouverie Pusey,1878     A Funeral Sermon Preached in St. John's Episcopal Church, Edinburgh, January 5, 1873, in Memory of the Late Very Rev. Edward Bannerman Ramsay Henry Cotterill,1873

The Teaching of the Christian Year: a Series of Sermons, Etc Patrick Cheyne,1861     Wesley, the Man, His Teaching, and His Work John Wesley,1891     Setting Words on Fire Paul Scott Wilson,2008 In the second half of the twentieth century a profound shift took place in how we think about preaching We moved away from a vertical focus on the preacher who hands down the authoritative teaching to more relational narrative and conversational models Yet common to both of these understandings says Paul Scott Wilson is the idea that preaching is primarily about teaching that it mainly conveys information about God Important as this emphasis on preaching as teaching has been Wilson believes that the time for a new approach has arrived That new approach which he names preaching as proclamation has begun to arise from a variety of Euro American and African American sources Its primary aim is not to convey information but to engender an encounter with God s grace in Christ More than guiding people to say Yes now I understand it hopes to lead them to proclaim I am redeemed we are saved More than telling the gospel story it renders the gospel s claim on human lives leading to conviction of sin repentance and transformation Pulling together the disparate strands of this new homiletical school Wilson constructs a comprehensive introduction to preaching focusing on its character as proclamation of the sovereign grace of God

The sermon Bible [extr. from sermons on the Bible by various authors],1888     The teaching of Jesus Christ: the model of pulpit instruction; a sermon Richard Warner,1828     Great Sermons of the World Clarence Edward Noble Macartney,1926     The Encyclopedia of Sunday Schools and Religious Education John Thomas McFarland,Benjamin Severance Winchester,1915     Training Preachers Scott Gibson,2019-03-20 There is a difference between knowing how to preach and knowing how to communicate that knowledge to others Drawing from the wells of pedagogy and theology Training Preachers shows teachers of homiletics how to educate preachers to skillfully and effectively present God s word to their congregations Training Preachers presents the classroom tested insights of several seasoned homiletics professors whose goal is to share their knowledge with preaching instructors ranging from novices to veterans Expertly edited by Scott M Gibson this is a textbook on teaching preaching that is informed by Christian theology as well as cutting edge pedagogical practices The book enables those who teach preaching to holistically prepare to teach this subject to groups conference gatherings and classes in Bible colleges and seminaries Sermons John Grote,1872 From the Study to the Pulpit Allan Moseley,2018-07-25 The purpose of this book is to offer both exegetical and preaching help by means of a workable 8 step method The author s preaching model starts with the initial step of determining the genre and meaning of the text to doing word studies and discovering the main ideas of the text to applying the sermon in a life changing and Christ honoring manner Some books on preaching from the Old Testament are written by authors who do not actually preach or preach only occasionally Pastors and budding preachers need a book written by someone who has knows what it is like to be a pastor and has prepared sermons every week for years
