Ab Initio Language Teaching in British Higher Education Ulrike Bavendiek, Silke Mentchen, Christian Mossmann, Dagmar Paulus, 2022-12-01 Drawing extensively on the expertise of teachers of German in universities across the UK this volume offers an overview of recent trends new pedagogical approaches and practical guidance for teaching at beginners level in the higher education classroom At a time when entries for UK school exams in modern foreign languages are decreasing this book serves the urgent need for research and guidance on ab initio learning and teaching in HE Using the example of teaching German it offers theoretical reflections on teaching ab initio and practice oriented approaches that will be useful for teachers of both German and other languages in higher education The first chapters assess the role of ab initio provision within the wider context of modern languages departments and language centres They are followed by sections on teaching methods and innovative approaches in the ab initio classroom that include chapters on the use of music textbook evaluation the effective use of a flipped classroom and the contribution of language apps Finally the book focuses on the learner in the ab initio context and explores issues around autonomy and learner strengths The whole builds into a theoretically grounded guide that sketches out perspectives for teaching and learning ab initio languages that will benefit current and future generations of students

Answering the Call Nathaniel R. Jones, 2010-03-01 Jones a trailblazing African American judge delivers an urgently needed perspective on American history A passionate and informative account Booklist starred review Answering the Call is an extraordinary eyewitness account from an unsung hero of the battle for racial equality in America a battle that far from ending with the great victories of the civil rights era saw some of its signal achievements in the desegregation fights of the 1970s and its most notable setbacks in the affirmative action debates that continue into the present in Ferguson Baltimore and beyond Judge Nathaniel R Jones s groundbreaking career was forged in the 1960s As the first African American assistant US attorney in Ohio as assistant general counsel of the Kerner Commission and beginning in 1969 as general counsel of the NAACP In that latter role Jones coordinated attacks against Northern school segregation a vital divisive and poorly understood chapter in the movement for equality twice arguing in the pivotal US Supreme Court case Bradley v Milliken which addressed school desegregation in Detroit He also led the national response to the attacks against affirmative action spearheading and arguing many of the signal legal cases of that effort Answering the Call is a stunning inside story of the contemporary struggle for civil rights Essential reading for understanding where we are today underscoring just how much work is left to be done Vernon E Jordan Jr civil rights activist A forthright testimony by a witness to history Kirkus Reviews
