Young Torless:

The Confusions of Young Törless Robert Musil, 2014 Set in a boarding school in a remote area of the Habsburg Empire at the turn of the last century The Confusions of Young Torless is an intense study of an adolescent's psychological development as he struggles to come to terms with his conflicting emotions Through his relationship with two other boys Torless is led into sadistic and sexual encounters with a third pupil which both repel and fascinate him Estranged from everyday life Torless gradually learns to accept his experiences and describe them with analytical precision The Confusions of Young Torless Robert Musil, 2001-09-01 At a bleak isolated military school on the fringes of the Austro Hungarian Empire four young cadets Torless Beineberg Reiting and their victim Basini rift even further away from their school fellows into a private world of ritual secrecy and torture For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators From the Trade Paperback edition Young Törless Robert Musil, 1955 Understanding Robert Musil Allen Thiher, 2009 Deft analysis of the fiction theater and essays of the author of The Man without Qualities In this critical introduction to the major works of Austrian modernist writer Robert Musil 1880 1942 Allen Thiher offers deft analysis of Musil's short fiction theater and essays and his major novel The Man without Qualities Thiher maps Musil's development as a writer illustrating how his work evolved in response to catastrophic historical events such as World War I the collapse of the Austro Hungarian Empire and Hitler's seizure of power From this historical context Thiher traces how Musil began his career by writing a prescient first novel about ideological developments in German culture and at the same time a doctoral thesis on scientific epistemology Following his service in World War I Musil began to view writing as his vocation and during this early period in his literary career he produced short fiction plays and some of the most interesting essays on politics ethics and literature to be published during the Weimar era In exploring these writings as well as The Man without Qualities a work left unfinished upon Musil's death in exile during World War II Thiher's study plumbs the depths of Musil's ambition and accomplishments and presents a concise interpretation of the lasting significance of the writer's interrogations of the foundations of modern European culture Volker Schlöndorff's Cinema Hans Bernhard Moeller, George L. Lellis, 2012-10-31 Volker Schlöndorff's Cinema Adaptation Politics and the Movie Appropriate examines the work of major postwar German director Volker Schlöndorff in historical economic and artistic contexts Incorporating a film by film twenty eight chapter study Hans Bernhard Moeller George Lellis reveal a complexity and formal ambitiousness of Schlöndorff that is comparable to that found in Wenders Herzog and Fassbinder In spite of Schlöndorff's successes with films like The Lost Honor of Katharina Blum and The Tin Drum as well as his acclaimed work in the U S with Death of a Salesman Gathering of Old Men and The Handmaid's Tale this is the first in depth critical study of the filmmaker's career In the context of film and television history this book relates Schlöndorff's oeuvre to the New German Cinema to his formative years as a student and production assistant in France and to his roots in the Weimar cinema's tradition It reveals how Schlöndorff entered into the German film production system in the 1960s how he came to rely on German public television in the 1970s and then moved to the international and American financing in the 1980s attempting to redevelop the Babelsberg studios in a 1990s post Wall Germany while continuing to make his own films into the 21st century The book captures how Schlöndorff's nearly half century of ongoing creativity and productivity ties together The authors analyze the artistry of each Schlöndorff movie arguing that his output as a whole embodies a provocative and sometimes contradictory set of balances Schlöndorff combines commercial interest with significant artistic ambition blends the kinesthetic pleasures of moving images with the seriousness of fine literature links the intensity of individualized personal experience to an awareness of broader political issues and represents a specifically German sensibility even as he reaches out to the international audiences The authors demonstrate the cyclical recurrence in his cinema of certain themes individual and collective rebellion fascist suppression masochistic love narrative patterns the Western the thriller the subjective mood piece and stylistic approaches Brechtian Verfremdung the creation of careful leitmotif structures the use of the grotesque In over thirty years of filmmaking Schlöndorff has produced a remarkable unified body of work that deserves the attention of a book length study Authors Hans Bernhard Moeller and George Lellis offer the first such study of its kind Volker Schlöndorff's Cinema: Adaptation, Politics, and the Movie Appropriate features forty one illustrations

Complex Pleasure Stanley Corngold, 1998 Complex Pleasure deals with questions of literary feeling in eight major German writers Lessing Kant Hölderlin Nietzsche Musil Kafka Trakl and Benjamin On the basis of close readings of these authors Stanley Corngold makes vivid the following ideas that where there is literature there is complex pleasure that this pleasure is complex because it involves the impression of a disclosure that this thought is foremost in the minds of a number of canonical writers that important literary works in the German tradition fiction poetry critique can be illuminated through their treatment of literary feeling and finally that the conceptual terms for these forms of feeling continually vary The types of feeling treated in Complex Pleasure include wit the startling perception of likeness and the disinterested pleasure of aesthetic judgment Hlderlin s swift conceptual grasp in which the tempo of the process of thought is stressed artistic imagination mood sadistic enjoyment rapturous distraction homonymic dissonance and courage as a mode of literary experience At the same time through the deftness range and surprise of its execution the book itself conveys complex pleasure The reader will also find fascinating hitherto untranslated material by Nietzsche On Moods and Kafka important sections from his journals and from his unfinished novel The Boy Who Sank Out of Sight

The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings,2008 Young Törless R.
