Freedom All The Way Up proposes four intertwined elements that make up the meaning of life self worth purpose identity and hope Materialism atheism claim the universe has no meaning so there is no larger purposeful story into which we can place ourselves we are left on our own to construct meaning for our lives Barrigar argues though that the universe possess God s meaning and purpose to provide the space and conditions by which to bring about the existence of agape capable beings in agape loving relationships with God and with others In effect the universe is a great freedom system designed by God with freedom built in all the way up from the Big Bang to the emergence of big brains and free will Barrigar describes the emergence of this system through his novel agape probability account of God s design for the universe which integrates such disciplines as quantum physics statistical mechanics probability theory evolutionary psychology neuroscience and game theory This system sets up the conditions for a fundamental choice between autonomous freedom which focuses principally on self and agapic freedom which focuses principally on God and on others Materialism chooses autonomous freedom but thereby introduces nihilism into each of the elements of meaning In turns out that nihilism is a much greater problem for Materialism than suffering is for Theism In contrast agapic freedom infuses self worth purpose identity and hope with God s agape love dispelling Materialism s inherent nihilism Freedom All The Way Up provides a dramatic new proposal for God and the meaning of life in our scientific and humanist age

The novel begins with Richard Papan, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
