Soon Cho, 1998 The purpose of this study is to examine emblems in Shakespeare's last plays Pericles Cymbeline The Winter's Tale The Tempest and Henry VIII Emblems serve two purposes First the structure of emblems contributes to the playwright's experiment with emblematic modes of representation and also depends on the correlational relationship between the picture and the epigram in an emblem Second emblems assist the playwright in communicating moral and philosophical ideas to the audience In the last plays morals lurk behind allegorical or symbolic emblems Through emblems the playwright addresses important moral philosophical and political questions such as fate and providence reason and passion faith time and divine right A full understanding of the last plays as a whole is difficult without a knowledge of emblems in relation to the plays structures and morals This study approaches the last plays from this perspective      Research Guide to the History of
