Feds charge Eastville cop in $820K fraud case

BY TED SHOCKLEY
Eastern Shore Post

An Eastville Police Department sergeant has been arrested on federal charges of wire fraud and money laundering after investigators said he misled 15 different people into giving him almost $820,000 as part of a ruse to fund "gambling habits," according to court documents.

Jerry Keith Brady Jr., 38, of Belle Haven, was arrested Monday, Aug. 25, by federal authorities and made an initial court appearance the same day, said a spokesman for the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia.

Among those allegedly defrauded by Brady is Eastville's former mayor, Jim Sturgis, who admitted in an interview after the arrest that he loaned Brady money.

A federal indictment filed Aug. 21 shows 15 people — identified in the court document only by their initials — gave Brady a total of 32 checks after Brady said he was "due a large inheritance or life insurance payout" but needed money to pay attorneys and other fees.

"Brady would seek substantial loans from these individuals, in some cases for tens of thousands of dollars, to pay the non-existent fees," the indictment reads.
