lives It took me years to figure that step out The day I understood how to start the process I went to work building promos Within six months I was in full time ministry around the world Prior to this I preached weekends while holding down a secular job You have the keys with this book They may not be exactly what you need but I know they will lead you in the right direction Success in the ministry is not a chance you take like buying a lottery ticket Success in ministry comes from choosing to follow a God given plan Choose to learn from everyone you can who embodies the characteristics you are looking for in your life and ministry If you do nothing waiting on doors to open by some chance in life you may not find your dream If you lay hold on your own destiny and choose to learn all you can while you can you will most likely find yourself going from the prayer room to promotion
