With Strings Attached:

With Strings Attached, 1999      Red Strings Attached Lainey Schmidt, 2020-03-10 Red Strings Attached is a fictional story inspired by real relationships When fact meets fiction it makes for an epic love story you can't put down Nellie is 24 years old and sets out to create a fresh start for herself by returning to college to make a career change and start a more professional path Her expectations of this new stage in life takes a sharp turn in a different direction when she meets both of her Red String loves in a span of two years Just in time to fall deeply in love with the man her heart and body are drawn to before she meets the one that is best for her mind and soul Love is blind love is blissful and love is brutal The task of juggling her new career and greatest loves pushes her to choose fight or flight while trying to make life changing decisions

Strings Attached Gay Walley, 2014-12 A lyric story of love's stranglehold on a father and daughter      With Strings Attached Joseph Szigeti, 1945      Theology from the Womb of Asia C.S. Song, 2005-07-07 With Theology from the Womb of Asia Song continues to demonstrate that he is one of the most creative and important theologians of our time He forces us to expand the horizons of our theological vision not only by drawing on the resources of Asian thought and experience but also by insisting that we do theology with passion Here he offers images fables poems parables and visions woven together with his own compelling prose The biblical stories with which we thought we were familiar become new and more compelling stories when we revisit them with this able and wise guide And our whole approach to life and living is transformed by the freshness he breathes into all that he surveys with us Robert McAfee Brown Professor Emeritus of Theology and Ethics Pacific School of Religion In Theology from the Womb of Asia C S Song shows how the story of God's compassion in Jesus and the many heartrending stories and poems of the Asian people are reaching out towards each other Doing theology in this perspective is not a matter of application of doctrine but of recognition of a relation between the suffering God and suffering humanity which transcends many artificial and alienating distinctions The book is an appeal to Asian theologians but at the same time a necessary challenge to a Western academic theology and missionary thinking Bert Hoedemaker Professor of Missions and Christian Ethics University of Groningen the Netherlands A splendid example of doing theology with Asian resources A breath of fresh air to liven up traditional theology using original reflections and observations with the backing of close knowledge of traditional theology A book no theological college can do without Yeow Choo Lak The South East Asia Graduate School of Theology Singapore C S Song is Professor of Theology and Asian Cultures at Pacific School of Religion His recent publications include The Believing Heart      Global Perspectives on Orchestras Tina K. Ramnarine, 2017-12-04 Offering innovative approaches to thinking about orchestras Global Perspectives on Orchestras Collective Creativity and Social Agency adopts ethnographic historical and comparative perspectives on a variety of traditions including symphony Caribbean steel Indonesian gamelan Indian film and Vietnamese court examples The volume presents compelling analyses of orchestras in their socio historical economic intercultural and postcolonial contexts while emphasizing the global and historical connections between musical traditions By drawing on new ethnographic and historical data the essays describe orchestral creative processes and the politics shaping performance practices Each essay considers how musicians work together in ensembles focusing on issues such as training rehearsal creative choices compositional processes and organizational infrastructures Testimonies of orchestral musicians highlight practitioners views into the diverse world of orchestras As a whole the volume discusses the creative roles of performers arrangers composers and arts agencies as well as the social environments supporting musical collaborations With contributions from an international team of researchers Global Perspectives on Orchestras offers critical insights gained from the study of orchestras collective creativity and social agency and the connections between orchestral performances colonial histories postcolonial practices ethnographic writings and comparative theorizations
