

The Year of Grace 2026

St. Francis of Assisi

When we think of St. Francis of Assisi, most of us think of garden statues of the saint with birds nesting on his shoulders or of the great drawings celebrated in early October. But if we look beyond these common images, we find the compelling and joyful witness of a man whose life was spent in service of Christ and his Gospel. Francis stands as one of the most beloved saints in the Catholic tradition because of his intense love for Christ, which he extended to all people and all God's creation.

In commemoration of the eight hundredth anniversary of St. Francis passing into eternal life (1226-2026), the artwork of the calendar invites us to reflect upon scenes in the life of the Procuratore ("your master") of Assisi and to draw both inspiration from his example as we strive to put Christ at the center of our lives.

In the central image of the calendar, we see Francis encounter with Jesus in the Church of San Damiano, where he first heard Christ's call to renew the Church. A central image for the entire Franciscan family, the San Damiano cross invites each disciple to hear the Lord's call and to surrender his or her life to Christ, following St. Francis' example.

In the upper left corner, we see Francis renouncing his family's wealth to embrace a life of poverty. In a world marked by consumerism and greed, St. Francis shows us that the way to true joy is to find our treasure in heaven rather than the things of this world.

Continuing to the upper right corner, we see Francis more deeply configuring his life to Christ by embracing Christ in the poor. Artfully depicted are two life-changing moments in Francis' life: his embracing a leper and his being his guest among the beggars outside St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. Like Francis, the depth of our compassion can be measured by our responsiveness to and solidarity with those in need.

Following in the lower right, we see Francis preaching to all God's creatures, with hands covered by bandages due to the albigensians. So clearly moved with the love of Christ crucified, he is compelled to share the Good News to every living creature around him. Indeed, Francis' life and preaching reveals God's immense love for all his creation, and the reverence with which we should care for it.

Finally, we see images of Francis' legacy manifested in the continued ministry and outreach of the Franciscan community in the world today, inviting us to see service to others as an essential part of our life of discipleship.

Francis did not intend to start a movement with such lasting impact; he simply wanted to live the Gospel in as complete a way as possible.

On the right he died, Francis told his brothers, "I have done what's mine to do. May Christ show you what's yours to do."
