

A painting of a man's face in profile, looking to the right. The man has a beard and is wearing a dark cap. A large, colorful crab is superimposed on the left side of his face, appearing to be part of his facial structure. The crab is rendered in shades of orange, red, and yellow, with detailed textures on its shell and legs. The background is dark and textured.

Something Deep Within Me Roars:

Something Deep Within Me Roars Troy A. Atterberry, 2005-07-01 Something Deep Within Me Roars is not just a collection of my poetry It s some of my deepest inner most personal and private thoughts feelings and emotions Writing it was an emotional journey for me sometimes returning my emotions to places I thought I had long left behind I often contemplated some of the contents of this book Whether or not I should allow some of the poems I choose to be in it actually be in it After countless mental matches of wrestling with these thoughts I came to the conclusion that my thoughts and feelings are what they are And in truth I can t alter them to appease someone else s appetite These are my experiences my feelings my thoughts lessons I have learned and the life I call my own In this book I open my soul to you and allow you dwell into the depths of me So welcome to the core of what makes me what I am Welcome to the place deep within me where something roars
