Orthodox Christianity at the Crossroad: a Great Council of the Church - When and Why George E. Matsoukas, 2009-04-07 Orthodox Christianity at the Crossroad A Great Council of the Church When and Why The purpose of publishing the papers presented at the Twentieth Annual Meeting of Orthodox Christian Laity is to improve lay and clergy literacy on the conference topic of The Need for a Great and Holy Council The papers are presented with the hope that the information will motivate the faithful to participate in the conciliar decision making process that moves the Church forward on the issue of developing the council or another appropriate meeting The forces factors and history that inhibit calling a council are presented in these papers The hope of what can be accomplished when brothers work in synergy with each other and the Holy Spirit is also evident The renewal of Orthodox Christianity and the renewal of its witness in the contemporary world of global religious pluralism depend on such a meeting The calling of a council free of worldly political power turf ego and ethnic considerations will renew the Living Tradition of Orthodoxy which is its Apostolic calling The world is looking for this Living Tradition which cannot be well expressed by a fragmented Orthodox Church A council is a step toward renewing the Church and making it whole in order to teach this Living Tradition It is interesting to noteas this collection of papers points outthat the children of Orthodox Christians living in America have come together as Americans in order to remain Orthodox through campus ministry programs that they are developing The young adults are leading the way to Orthodox unity Is it not time for the Church elders the hierarchs the clergy and the faithful to look at the example of unity that the youth are providing and move ahead to do what is necessary to renew the Church through this conciliar council ABOUT THE EDITOR George E Matsoukas Executive Director of Orthodox Christian Laity since 2000 recently published A Church in Captivity The Greek Orthodox Church of America He co authored and edited Project for Orthodox Renewal and continues to publish articles in various journals newspapers and local history publications He is an active member of his church and community Mission of OCL Orthodox Christian Laity OCL is a national voluntary movement dedicated to synodiaconia co ministry of clergy and laity who are concerned with the spiritual renewal accountability and transparency in Church governance OCL encourages the laity to exercise its legitimate responsibilities as part of the conciliar governance process OCL advocates the establishment of an administratively and canonically UNIFIED SELF GOVERNING Orthodox Church in North America which is in keeping with the theology and tradition in fulfilling its Apostolic mission Eastern Orthodox Mission Theology Today James J. Stamoolis,2001-11-02 The purpose of the ASM Series is to publish without regard for disciplinary national or denominational boundaries scholarly works of high quality and wide interest on missiological themes from the entire spectrum of scholarly pursuits e g theology history anthropology sociology linguistics health education art political science economics and development to articulate but a partial list Always the focus will be on Christian mission By mission in this context is meant a cross cultural passage over the boundary between faith in Jesus Christ and its absence In this understanding of mission the basic functions of Christian proclamation dialogue witness service fellowship worship and nurture are of special concern How does the transition from one cultural context to another influence the shape and interaction of these dynamic functions Missiologists know that they need the other disciplines And other disciplines we dare to suggest need missiology perhaps more than they sometimes realize Neither the insider s nor the outsider s view is complete in itself The world Christian mission has through two millennia amassed a rich and well documented body of experience to share with other disciplines Interaction will be the hallmark of this Series It desires to be a channel for talking to one another instead of about one another Secular scholars and church related missiologists have too long engaged in a sterile venting of feelings about one another often lacking in full evidence Ignorance of and indifference to one another s work has been no less harmful to good scholarship The promotion of scholarly dialogue among missiologists may at times involve the publication of views and positions that other missiologists cannot accept and with which members of the Editorial Committee do not agree The manuscripts published reflect the opinions of their authors and are not meant to represent the position of the American Society of Missiology or the Editorial Committee of the ASM Series We express our warm thanks to various mission agencies whose financial contributions enabled leaders of vision in the ASM to launch this new venture The future of the ASM series will we feel sure fully justify their confidence and support William J Danker Chairperson ASM Series Editorial Committee
