Song Of Desire:

Desire by Gender and Genre in Trouvère Song Helen Dell, 2008 Unspoken desire in trouvère song This study brings the songs of the trouvères to an encounter with Lacanian psychoanalytic theories of signification sexual difference and unconscious desire In trouvère song desire functions as a means of generic and genderic differentiation The trouvères distinguished between sexual need or lust and desire the latter usually confined to the masculine voice in high style Less exalted persons in whose company women were already implicitly included appear as incapable of desire in the fin amors register Critics have treated the issue of desire as represented in the courtly chanson but because criticism has followed the trouvères distinction between desire and need discussion of desire has been limited to songs in the courtly register rather than across the system of genres Desire in Lacan's sense that is unconscious desire is present in all genres and voices and this book unearths the unspoken desires of trouvère song by an attention to the characteristic means by which subjects subvert their demands in different genres HELEN DELL is a research fellow in English Literary Studies in the School of Culture and Communication University of Melbourne

Songs and Lyrical Poems Edgar Vine Hall, 1908

The Generation of Meaning in Liturgical Songs Willem Marie Speelman, 1995 This book is about the meaning of liturgical songs Everybody who sings liturgical songs knows what a liturgical song is and also what it means But when we start to talk about them things become confused We know too much and there are too many languages in which we can express what we think their meaning is And what is worse other people seem not to understand what we say and immediately reply that we may know a lot but not what they know Then the discussion turns into a quarrel amongst people who know too much and cannot communicate what they know A wise person may enter into the quarrel and say that communication about liturgical songs can only succeed when we sing together Then we will sing together confused and angry because we now also know that the other people may sing very well but do not understand what they are doing This is what has been happening for decades in the Dutch churches Perhaps we should be silent and start to look and listen very carefully to liturgical songs while developing a language in which the songs themselves can speak communicating what they have to say The looking and listening will take much time and energy there are no more easy answers And the language will be so difficult that we are forced to be silent waiting and hoping for a word to come Willem Marie Speelman 1960 is a musicologist theologian and semiotician In the present work he develops a very strict scientific method which can help to understand how liturgical songs work that is in what manner they generate meaning The Song of Songs ,1921 Queer in Russia Laurie Essig,1999 After a decade of conducting interviews as well as observing and analyzing plays books pop music and graffiti Essig presents the first sustained study of how and why there was no Soviet gay community or even gay identity before perestroika 9 photos Poetic Ethics in Proverbs Anne W.
