Song of Meditation T. S. Innocenti,1988-10 Waves and Forms Basile Zimmermann,2015-05-22 An examination of the relationship between technical objects and culture in contemporary China drawing on concepts from science and technology studies Technical objects constrain what users do with them They are not neutral entities but embody information choices values assumptions or even mistakes embedded by designers What happens when a technology is designed in one culture and used in another What happens for example when a Chinese user is confronted by Roman alphabet embedded interfaces In this book Basile Zimmermann examines the relationship between technical objects and culture in contemporary China drawing on concepts from science and technology studies STS He presents a new theoretical framework for culture based on the notions of waves and forms which provides a powerful descriptive toolkit for technology and culture The materials Zimmermann uses to develop and illustrate his theoretical arguments come from three groups of case studies about the use of technical devices in today s China The first and most extensive group consists of observations of electronic music devices in Beijing the second is a study of a Chinese networking site Happy Network and the third is a collection of personal small scale observations on the way Chinese characters behave when located in alphabet encoded devices such as mobile phones web pages or printed documents Zimmermann discusses well known frameworks from STS and combines them with propositions and topics from Chinese studies Each of the case studies advances his theoretical argument Zimmermann's account shows how cultural differences can be integrated into STS research and how sinologists can turn their attention from ancient texts and traditional art to everyday things in present day China Masterpieces from the Museum of Classical Chinese Furniture Museum of Classical Chinese Furniture, Shixiang Wang, Curtis Everts, 1995 The Diapason Siegfried Emanuel Gruenstein, 1918 Includes music A History of Christian-Latin Poetry from the Beginnings to the Close of the Middle Ages Frederic James Edward Raby, 1927 Organist, 1909 The New Music Review and Church Music Review, 1912 Newcomb School of Music Tulane University, 1914 L'orient, 1872 The Etude.
