_____ When the starving French masses rise to overthrow a corrupt and decadent government both the guilty and the innocent become victims of their frenzied anger Soon nothing stands in the way of the chilling figure they enlist for their cause La Guillotine the new invention for efficiently chopping off heads This captivating tale uses the contrasts between the two cities beliefs to reveal the central choice confronting every society and each individual Should a person work to change society or should the revolution occur within his heart Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Contemporary British Dramatists Kathryn Ann Berney,N. G. Templeton,1994 Concise discussions of the lives and principal works of contemporary British playwrights written by subject experts The English Catalogue of Books ... Sampson Low,1907 Recovering Inequality Steve Kroll-Smith,2018-08-15 A lethal mix of natural disaster dangerously flawed construction and reckless human actions devastated San Francisco in 1906 and New Orleans in 2005 Eighty percent of the built environments of both cities were destroyed in the catastrophes and the poor the elderly and the medically infirm were disproportionately among the thousands who perished These striking similarities in the impacts of cataclysms separated by a century impelled Steve Kroll Smith to look for commonalities in how the cities recovered from disaster In Recovering Inequality he builds a convincing case that disaster recovery and the reestablishment of social and economic inequality are inseparable Kroll Smith demonstrates that disaster and recovery in New Orleans and San Francisco followed a similar pattern In the immediate aftermath of the flooding and the firestorm social boundaries were disordered and the communities came together in expressions of unity and support But these were quickly replaced by other narratives and actions including the depiction of the poor as looters uneven access to disaster assistance and successful efforts by the powerful to take valuable urban real estate from vulnerable people Kroll Smith concludes that inexorable market forces ensured that recovery efforts in both cities would reestablish the patterns of inequality that existed before the catastrophes

The major difference he finds between the cities is that from a market standpoint New Orleans was expendable while San Francisco rose from the ashes because it was a hub of commerce
