Affective Polarisation Jana Gohrisch, Gesa Stedman, 2023-09-25 Inequality is an ever present danger in our society This important book addresses the crucial nexus between the lived experience of inequality and how it shapes political responses. With contributors from the UK and Continental Europe the book compiles case studies with theoretically informed discussions of the relationship between affective polarisation, social inequality and the fallout from Brexit and COVID 19. Using a broad concept of social inequality the book incorporates aspects of economy and society, language and emotion, culture as well as interviews and film in historical and transnational perspectives. The contributors offer a powerful examination of the ways in which the politics of the UK and the lived experiences of its residents have been reframed in the first decades of the 21st century.
