

A child wearing a light-colored, ribbed sweater is sitting on a patterned rug, playing with colorful geometric toys. The toys include a large blue ring, a purple ring, a yellow ring, a red ring, a green triangle with three holes, and a teal square with two holes. Child-directed speech. Modifications in linguistic input to children and their possible functions. Philipp Rott, 2003-11-10 Seminar paper from the year 2001 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Linguistics University of Duisburg Essen Foreign Languages course Hauptseminar Language Acquisition SS 2001 language English abstract Anyone who has seen and heard a child speak his her first words and who has noticed how much language determines the progress of a child in becoming independent of his her parents and in mastering interaction with others must have wondered why it is that children can fulfil such an obviously complex task in such a surprisingly little time with seemingly little effort It appears almost impossible that the child can achieve so much all by himself herself Thus quite frequently people consider the linguistic input that is available to the child as a crucial factor for the child s language acquisition It is no wonder that he has learned to speak so fast with so many people around speaking to him and showing him how to speak is an utterance I heard quite often when my son was at the age when he started producing his first words But did I really help him to learn language Of course I noticed my own speech modifications as well as that of other people when conversing with him But does this special register which nearly everyone at least in our western culture seems to adapt when addressing children really make a difference Do we even teach our children to speak I will not attempt to answer these questions in the present paper as much more research is needed in this area However I want to give an overview on the different features of the language used when addressing children It will be shown on which principles of modification these features are based and which functions they might serve for the child Moreover it will be argued that some features of the speech to children may possibly facilitate language acquisition but that the language used to them is not necessarily simplified language

The Satisfied Soul John Piper, 2017-09-05 May these meditations become in your life the living embodiment of God

s Word and penetrate to the deep places of your soul God has a good work to do there John Piper ONLY GOD CAN SATISFY YOUR SOUL Every day the world takes another step away from God s truth and into greater moral and spiritual relativism If your view of life is fed by a steady diet of television news and popular opinion you ll find yourself starved parched and confused But there is a way for your soul to be satisfied and at peace during these turbulent times The answer is to turn those hungers questions and desires towards God These meditations offer a daily serving of God s Word along with practical insights from beloved pastor and author John Piper Each reading reorients you to the eternal rather than the popular In a world where ephemeral feelings are valued more than firm facts and eternal joys each selection will awaken you to the truth of who God is and who you are These 120 devotional readings celebrate God s sovereignty in every aspect of our world from how to feed our soul the danger of hero worship and loving our enemies to suffering having a passion for purity and ways we can be a refuge for our children This collection offers a daily feast of truth and wisdom that places God right where He belongs at the center of our lives These meditations originally appeared in John Piper s Pierced by the Word Life as a Vapor and A Godward Heart YOU ARE INVITED TO ENJOY THE RAREST OF TREASURES The world tries to distract our minds Deaden our hearts Water down our beliefs If there are no absolutes then we can pursue whatever tickles our fancy We are the captain of our destiny But sadly the result is that we remain hopelessly adrift in a constantly changing sea of confusion There is a better answer Rather than numb our soul we can fully satisfy it Instead of letting the world squeeze us into its mold we can be molded into sons and daughters of God The solution is to feast on God s Word and drink deep from His river of life These daily meditations invite us into this central promise about God You are good and do good Teach me your statutes Psalm 119:68 Discover the supremacy of God in every area of your life and as the only source of a truly satisfied soul
