

Viva Picasso

An album book has been compiled to clarify the character of a revolutionary personality, to show this definitive photographic portrait of Pablo Picasso. For nearly twenty years David Douglas Duncan was an intimate friend of Picasso and his family. From the tens of thousands of photographs he took in the artist's last three months, Duncan has selected 100 of his favorite pictures, some world famous, most never before published, to celebrate the artist's centennial year. Here we see Picasso at work, and at play; painting, drawing, enjoying private moments with his wife, children, and friends. Through these extraordinary photographs, reproduced in color and full color and the delightfully candid text, we see the full vitality of this great man, watch while he creates a masterpiece, and sense the warmth and emotional depth of a genius whose work affected the entire culture of modern art and the thought of men that succeeds us in our century.

Photographed, written, designed, and produced by Duncan, this unique, beautiful book is a fitting tribute to Picasso's 100th birthday. It is a work that will be treasured by all who are interested in art and photography, by all who are truly, including of his inspiration in the non-imitation of adventure.
