Voices Of German Expressionism:

Voices of German Expressionism Victor H. Miesel, 2003-05-14 Between 1900 and 1933 Expressionist artists created some of the most dramatic and enduring images of the twentieth century This volume brings together the thoughts and aspirations of the individuals who brought about this revolutionary epoch in the visual arts It offers readers the opportunity to engage at firsthand with key writings by the most significant artists of the Expressionist era

Voices of German Expressionism Victor H. Miesel, 2003 The Expressionist Roots of Modernism Peter Lasko, 2003 This book explores the beginnings of the interior design profession in nineteenth century France Drawing on a wealth of visual sources from collecting and advice manuals to pattern books and department store catalogues it demonstrates how new forms of print media were used to sell the idea of the unified interior as a total work of art enabling the profession of interior designer to take shape In observing the dependence of the trades on the artistic and public visual appeal of their work Interior decorating in nineteenth century France establishes crucial links between the fields of art history material and visual culture and design history

The Visual Arts in Germany, 1890-1937 Shearer West, 2000 This work provides an introduction to the visual arts in Germany from the early years of German unification to World War II The study is an analysis of painting sculpture graphic art design film and photography in relation to a wider set of cultural and social issues that were specific to German modernism It concentrates on the ways in which the production and reception of art interacted with and was affected by responses to unification conflict between left and right political factions gender concerns contemporary philosophical and religious ideas the growth of cities and the increasing important of mass culture

The Expressionist Era in Germany, 1900-1933 Karin Breuer, 1990

Giving Voice to Love Judith A. Peraino, 2011-11-28 The lyrics of medieval courtly love songs are characteristically self conscious Giving Voice to Love investigates similar self consciousness in the musical settings Moments and examples where voice melody rhythm form and genre seem to comment on music itself tell us about musical responses to the courtly chanson tradition and musical reflections on the complexity of self expression

The Roots & Routes of Art in the 20th Century Michèle C. Cone, 1975 German Expressionism Dorothy Price, 2020-06-24 This book presents new research on the histories and legacies of the German Expressionist group Blaue Reiter the founding force behind modernist abstraction For the first time Blaue Reiter is subjected to a variety of novel inter disciplinary perspectives ranging from a philosophical enquiry into its language and visual perception to analyses of its gender dynamics its reception at different historical junctures throughout the twentieth century and its legacies for post colonial aesthetic practices The volume offers a new perspective on familiar aspects of Expressionism and abstraction taking seriously the inheritance of modernism for the twenty first century in ways that will help to recalibrate the field of Expressionist studies for future scholarship Blaue Reiter still matters the contributors argue because the legacies of abstraction are still being
